WILSON TO NAME HENEY PROSECUTOR FOR M'NAB

THREATENS TO SLAY BRIDE

Daughter of Tichborne Claimant Announced Plan to Shoot Miss Greville

Earl of Granard Receives Warning and Causes Girl's Arrest

LONDON, June 24.—A sensational charge was made today at the Bow Street police court against a daughter of Arthur Orton, the noted claimant to the estate of the Tichborne family, about whose identity the world was divided into two camps for many years. The woman was accused of threatening to murder Miss Denise Greville, who is to marry Sir Joseph Doughty-Tichborne, the young baronet, at Brompton Oratory, tomorrow. The threat was contained in a letter to the Earl of Granard, who married in 1909 Beatrice Mills, daughter of Ogden Mills of New York.

Sir George Lewis, speaking for the prosecution, declared that the accused had intended to carry out her threat of murder during the ceremony at Brompton Oratory tomorrow.

The accused, who called herself Theresa Doughty-Tichborne, protested in court that she intended no harm to the bride and only wanted to bring her case to the attention of the public.

"THEFT!" IS HER CRY.

The letter to the Earl of Granard referred to the "approaching marriage of my cousin, Joseph Tichborne."

"I have asked you to use your influence to make them give me some of the money they have stolen from us. You do nothing. It is nothing to you that I starve as long as you and your wife can give parties and flaunt about with people who, if they knew the truth, would be ashamed to know you. You cannot hide any more, for I am making you an accessory before the fact in telling you that I am going to shoot that girl rather than Joseph shall marry her and they shall live on my money.

"As there is a God in heaven, I am going to do it."

CLAIM TO FORTUNE.

Arthur Orton, in 1869, claimed to be Roger Tichborne and demanded the title and estate of the twelfth baronet. He came from Australia, and the family believing that young Roger Tichborne had been lost at sea, refused to accept him.

The celebrated trial ensued in 1872. Orton was non-suited and later sent to jail for 14 years for perjury. He died after serving his term in 1898, but before that admitted his identity as a butcher from the East End of London.

ATTACK IS MADE WITH PISTOL

C. W. Arens Accuses Realty Man of Swindling; Pulls Trigger

Mechanism Fails to Work and No Injury Results Scuffle Follows

Believing that he had been swindled out of a strip of land 20 feet in width on the purchase of ten acres Charles W. Arens appeared in the offices of the Equitable Syndicate, in the Security Savings Bank Building, late this afternoon, and demanded of F. D. Burr payment of $58.98 to reimburse him for the alleged fraud. When Burr offered to take the matter under consideration, Arens, it is claimed, drew a revolver from beneath his coat, turned the weapon on Burr and pulled the trigger. Failure of the mechanism to work probably saved the man's life.

Burr ran around his desk and engaged Arens in a hand-to-hand struggle in which the two men fell to the floor of the office and rolled about until Burr gained possession of the weapon. During the struggle Arens again succeeded in directing the revolver toward Burr and in pulling the trigger, but again the weapon failed.

POLICE SUMMONS

Attaches of the office rushed in and the police were notified. Inspectors Kyle and Niels went to the scene of the trouble and placed the man under arrest. He will be charged with assault with a deadly weapon with intent to commit murder. Arens admitted to the inspectors that he had purchased the weapon and had filled the chambers at a local hardware store before going to the office this afternoon. He stated that he had never before made demands upon the company or had claimed that he was short. Burr states that the land was purchased three years ago and had been passed upon by a title and abstract company, and that this was the first time he had heard there was anything wrong about the deal.

STOCK BROKER IS NOW MR. SAHARET

NEW YORK, June 24.—Saharet, the Russian dancer, who arrived in this city Sunday on board the Carmania, was married yesterday to Friedrich W. von Frantzius, a prominent stock broker of Chicago and New York, and immediately left on her honeymoon to Atlantic City. The wedding was somewhat of a surprise to New York, though the two had been engaged for the last few months.

"I came in response to an urgent cable from my Fritz," said the dancer today. "He told me he could not stand long engagements and that it was his wish that the knot be tied as soon as I reached this side. How could I resist such an appeal? Yes, we expect to be very, very happy. He promises to be awfully good to me—he'll have to be."

U. S. Attorney Requests That Successor Handles Prosecutions

Western Fuel, Diggs and Caminetti and J. C. Wilson Cases Put Over

SAN FRANCISCO, June 24.—When the cases of John L. Howard et al., indicted officers and directors of Western Fuel Company, were called before United States District Judge Bean of Oregon in the court here this morning, United States District Attorney John L. McNab asked for a continuance because of a difference of opinion between himself and Attorney-General McReynolds.

"Since these cases were set certain conditions have arisen in the matter of the indictments against the entire directorate of the Western Fuel Company," said McNab. "The attorney-general has requested me to withdraw from trial at present the names of certain defendants.

OBJECTS TO PROCEEDINGS.

"I am absolutely unable to agree with my superior, and under these circumstances I don't feel that I should proceed with the cases in hand.

"For the reason of my inability to agree with my superior I have tendered my resignation, and I don't think I ought to proceed with the prosecution of the cases in view of these facts."

TELLS OF INDICTMENT.

"The two men I was ordered to withdraw from trial were indicted by two successive grand juries, on what was considered overwhelming evidence, and I feel that it would be a miscarriage of justice to try some of the defendants and refuse to try others."

"I came to try these cases today," remarked Judge Bean, and waited.

Warren Olney Jr. of counsel for the men accused of the Western Fuel cases addressed the court.

"I suppose it will take some time for Mr. McNab's successor to familiarize himself with these cases," he began, "and so I would suggest that your continue them for three or four weeks. The defendants will be ready

Wife Murderer Cuts Own Throat and Dies

SAN FRANCISCO, June 24.—Grasping a sharp knife from a nearby table, Edward J. Heney, who killed his wife with a baseball bat on June 19, lashed his throat from ear to ear in the Harbor Emergency hospital this morning and died almost immediately. Heney was confined in the city prison awaiting appearance on a charge of murder. He pricked his wrist with a [illegible] causing the blood to flow profusely from a vein. His act was discovered and he was taken to the hospital for treatment in charge of Officer Dan Lyons. Attendants bound up his wrist, and while they were off their guard for a moment the man suddenly leaped to the table on which were lying a number of sharp surgical scalpels. He seized one of these before the attendants could interfere and committed the fatal act.

Dooling May Get U. S. Judgeship

WASHINGTON, June 24.—It was reported that Judge M. T. Dooling of the California Superior Court was likely to be selected for the vacant judgeship caused by the death of United States Judge J. J. de Haven, and that A. C. Campbell of Los Angeles, Cal., who has been endorsed for district attorney for the southern district of California, might be asked to go to San Francisco to prosecute the federal cases which have been postponed by the resignation of United States Attorney John L. McNab.

The organization will be effected immediately after the prayer meeting, which will be addressed by Rev. Charles F. Aked, pastor of the First Congregational Church of San Francisco who will conclude his course of June lectures in the local church tomorrow evening.

Kikoshi's Act Not Caused by Dispute

TOKIO, June 24.—The resignation from the ministry of war of Lieutenant-General Baron Yasutsuna Kikoshi apears to have no connection with the Japanese-American negotiations over the California land ownership legislation.

One explanation given today is that he was opposed to the reduction of the army credits and to the limitation of the war minister's powers in administrative matters. Another explanation is that he incurred the displeasure of the army and was forced to retire.

M'REYNOLDS FAVORS DISSOLUTION PLAN

Counsel for U. P. Confers With Attorney-General

WASHINGTON, June 24.—Paul D. Cravath, counsel for the Union Pacific railroad, conferred with Attorney-General McReynolds today over the dissolution of the Union Pacific merger, with particular reference to the proposition to exchange $38,000,000 Southern Pacific stock held by the Union Pacific for a similar amount of Baltimore & Ohio held by the Pennsylvania.

The attorney-general has not yet definitely announced his approval of that proposal, but his tentative conclusion has been that it is a step in the right direction, because it divorces the Pennsylvania from the Baltimore & Ohio, a competing line.

McReynolds probably will advise the United States Court at St. Paul of his attitude before July 1. The Union Pacific's plans submitted to the court for the disposition of the remainder of its Southern Pacific holdings are opposed by the attorney-general.

Kahn Resolutions Demanding Papers in Delayed Cases to Come Up Thursday

DOOLING MAY BE M'NAB'S SUCCESSOR

WASHINGTON, June 24.—President Wilson has decided to order the immediate prosecution of the Caminetti-Diggs white slave cases and the Western Fuel Co. indictments, delayed in the San Francisco federal courts by Attorney-General McReynolds, and will appoint Francis J. Heney a special prosecutor to take them up.

WASHINGTON, June 24.—The House judiciary committee at a hearing Thursday will investigate the delay ordered by Attorney-General McReynolds in federal prosecutions at San Francisco of Maury Diggs and Drew C. Caminetti, indicted under the white slave law, and officers of the Western Fuel Company, indicted for conspiracy to defraud the customs.

Chairman Clayton announced the decision of the committee to have a hearing and take up resolutions by Representative Kahn of California. While the purpose of the Thursday hearing is not to begin an investigation of the merits of the prosecutions, it is to determine on action on the Kahn resolutions calling on the attorney general to send to Congress all papers in the case which are expected to disclose the official reasons for the postponement.

Representative Hinebaugh's resolution to direct the judiciary committee to investigate the entire matter was today referred to the rules committee.

STATEMENT DELAYED

President Wilson went off to the golf links early in the afternoon and the expected official statement on what the administration proposed to do was delayed. Attorney-General McReynolds did not return to his office from the cabinet meeting, but secluded himself, probably to write a report for the President. There was a great deal of gossip in official circles as to whether McNab's resignation would be accepted or whether he would be dismissed. The latter course, officials thought, would be a vindication for the attorney-general.

What effect the appointment of a special prosecutor and the President's determination to order the cases to immediate trial would have was the subject of lively speculation.

NO ACTION ON RESIGNATION.

United States Attorney McNab's resignation, wired from San Francisco Saturday, with startling charges that Attorney General McReynolds had ordered delays in certain criminal prosecutions in San Francisco which threatened to defeat justice still lay unacted upon today before President Wilson.

The situation which already has called forth various explanations was taken up at the cabinet meeting but Attorney General McReynolds declined to talk at all about it.

WILSON SEEKS REPORT

The impression prevailed that acceptance of the resignation was being held back pending some further investigation at the conclusion of which either it would be accepted or declined. Yesterday President Wilson called on McReynolds for a full report on the incident.

The delayed prosecutions are those of Maury Diggs and F. Drew Caminetti, son of Anthony Caminetti, the new commissioner general of immigration indicted under the Mann white slave law, and officials of the Western Fuel Company indicted for conspiracy to defraud the customs.

McNab Pleased With Action of President

SAN FRANCISCO, June 24.—When seen this afternoon United States District Attorney McNab expressed pleasure at the news regarding the appointment of Francis J. Heney as special prosecutor for the government in the Diggs and Caminetti case, and the Western Fuel company matters.

"I have not as yet received official confirmation of the news of the appointment but later I expect to be able to issue a formal statement. However, I can say at this time I will welcome the appointment and will be glad to be relieved from the duties of this office which I have found incompatable under the circumstances now existing."

Half-Cent Duty on Sugar, Bourbon Plan

WASHINGTON, June 24.—Anti-free sugar Democrats got together in the senate caucus today and agreed to support an amendment by Senator Shaffroth to eliminate the provision for free sugar in 1916 and substitute a duty of approximately one-half cent a pound after that time on refined sugar.

The Shaffroth amendment accepts the duties proposed in the Underwood bill on sugar for the next three years including a rate on refined sugar until 1 16 of approximately one cent a pound.

The caucus set sugar aside temporarily to resume its consideration later, and approved the tobacco schedule without change, and also all the senate committee amendments to the agricultural schedule relating to livestock and grains.

Wheat and flour were left on the free list with a countervailing duty. Livestock and meats were left on the unrestricted free list, oats at 6 cents a bushel, oatmeal at 23 cents per 100 pounds and barley at 15 cents a bushel remain unchanged.

Wood Pulp Decision Costs U. S. 3 Millions

WASHINGTON, June 24.—The United States will give up $3,000,000 to European importers of wood pulp and paper as a result of the treasury department's decision today not to appeal to the Supreme Court from the recent decisions of the Customs Court that all countries having "favored nation" treaties with the United States were entitled to free wood pulp and paper because that privilege was granted to Canada. The importations were made from France, Germany, Norway, Sweden, Denmark and other European countries.

the only comment on the McNab case came from Attorney General McReynolds.

"The President will issue a statement on the subject in due course," he said.

It was understood that the attorney general's report presented at President Wilson's direction, was an oral one and that Secretary Bryan, a friend of the elder Caminetti, and Secretary Lane, familiar with California affairs, participated in the dis-

EXPECT ACCEPTANCE.

White House officials would not anticipate the President's statement, some administration officials understood that McNab's resignation would be accepted and that the President would designate a new prosecutor and fill an existing vacancy on the federal bench in San Francisco, that the cases may go to trial almost immediately.

The President's statement will probably include a report from the attorney general explaining the circumstances which brought about the delay.

Harr's Defense in Western Fuel Cases

"The trial of the entire Western Fuel case was not ordered postponed, but only the trials of Bruce and Smith, who were indicted with three other directors of the company. Bruce and Smith were directors only, while the other three defendants were officials as well as directors. Attorney Pringle, for the company, asked that the indictments of Bruce and Smith be dismissed on the ground of no evidence to connect them with the alleged frauds. I certainly studied the evidence in the case submitted by United States Attorney McNab and reached the conclusion that Bruce and Smith, who seemed men of high character, probably were innocent, as apparently they were directors in the usual sense and were unfamiliar with the operations of the company. In order to prevent a miscarriage of justice I recommended, and Attorney General McReynolds acquiesced, that three directors who were officials because this trial undoubtedly would develop the extent of the connection of Bruce and Smith with the alleged frauds.

"It seemed unwise to run the risk of convicting two innocent men along with three men who might be guilty when the ends of justice would be fully satisfied by later trials if the government received evidence which it did not then possess of the guilt of Bruce and Smith."—Defense of Assistant Attorney General Harr.

McNab, in Reply, Adds to Charges

"Harr has interjected himself into this case by volunteering a defense of McReynolds. If you ask who Harr is my reply is that he is the man who has blocked our performance of our duty by overruling in summary and high-handed manner the finding of the courts and the proven testimony gathered by the immigration officials here.

"If these cases were not notorious I do not know what you could say about them," said McNab. "Every one of the women against whom we had proceeded were of exceptionally vicious character and had been absolutely proven to have been engaged in immoral business, clearly in violation of the federal statutes.

"When I was in Washington, after our campaign against these women had been blocked, I put this how, and told him I thought it was an outrage to dismiss or admit to bail persons held on such charges.

"The local situation substantiates my charges that we have been hampered in this work. Indirect and cautious attempts were made to approach me in one of these cases, and I have and still regard it as a particularly outrageous situation when we meet interference in the prosecution of such palpable violators of the law."—Excerpts from McNab's reply to Assistant Attorney General Harr.

Resolutions Call for Papers in Cases

WASHINGTON, June 24.—Following is the text of the Kahn resolutions introduced in the lower House yesterday, calling upon Attorney-General McReynolds for papers in postponed California cases:

"Resolved, That the Attorney-General be and he hereby is instructed to transmit to the House of Representatives copies of all correspondence and other papers and memoranda on file in the office of the Attorney-General, or referred by the President to the Attorney-General, relating to the prosecution or trial of Maury Diggs and Drew Caminetti, or both of them, for violation of the white slave act.

"Resolved, That the Attorney-General be, and he hereby is instructed to transmit to the House of Representatives, copies of all correspondence and other papers and memoranda on file in the office of the Attorney-General, or referred by the President to the Attorney-General, relating to the postponement or delay of the trial of cases against the Western Fuel Company, by direction of J. C. Wilson, or either, or any of them, now pending in the northern district of California."

$5000 FOR "FAVOR."

In response to questions McNab then revealed certaina of the correspondence between Harr and himself. In one of the letters he wrote to Harr, under date of October 21, 1912, he referred to the bribery attempt in the following language:

"The class of man who will interest himself in cases of this description usually comprises the saloon man, the gambler and others of their ilk. These men are in constant touch with every one even remotely acquainted with any one in this office and have not hesitated to throw out all manner of hints that if this office would only abandon its opposition to bail any amount of money could be had for the favor."

Later, said McNab, he went to Harr, in Washington, and told the latter personally of the mention of $5000 for a "favor" in one of

McNab referred at that time to the occasion when a certain San Franciscan, a man at one time declared to have been widely known in municipal politics, entered his office to intercede for Helen Maregua, Lena Dupins and Louise Savarts. McNab's repetition of the visitor's statement follows:

"Mr. McNab," said the caller, "I don't want you to misunderstand my motives in approaching you in this case. Neither do I want you to misunderstand what I am going to say. I think, however, that it is no more than right that I should tell you that a friend of one of the girls told me that if you would consent to dropping the prosecution in these cases $5000 or any reasonable amount above $5000 awaits you for the favor. But, as I said, I don't want you to misunderstand my visit."

WOODWORTH CLIENTS FREED.

McNab also declared that on several occasions Marshall Woodworth, an attorney, entered his office and declared that he would have Washington free his convicted clients. They were freed, said McNab.

"As to the Western fuel case," said McNab, "I have a copy of a letter written to me by Harr, in which he declines to forward me the original letter written by Sidney Smith, soliciting the attorney general's aid to procure a stay of prosecution against himself. Harr refused the letter on the ground that he did not believe it properly admissible at the Western Fuel conspiracy trial."

Alleges Interference In Immigration Cases

SAN FRANCISCO, June 24.—United States Attorney John L. McNab, in reply to a statement of Assistant Attorney-General Harr, in defense of Attorney-General McReynolds, has added to his charges against McReynolds in directly accusing Harr of having interfered with the prosecution in this city of immoral women who had been ordered deported by the local immigration officials.

The charges revive a previous scandal in the San Francisco police department when four policemen were sistant United States Attorney Harr sion and were exonerated for having sworn to character affidavits for Louise Du Pont, keeper of a notorious French dive.

RELEASE ORDERED.

Harr is accused of having ordered three notorious women and one divekeeper released after Superior Judges Van Fleet and Dietrich had ordered them deported and of having overruled the local immigration officials in the cases of three other women in admitting them to probation over the protests from McNab's office.

Three French women, known as the Camele sisters, and Pedro Garcia, keeper of a notorious resort in Vallejo were the four whose continued prosecution was blocked by Harr, according to McNab.

"The local immigration office has been seething with indignation," said McNab yesterday, "because they were not sustained, and, in fact, had been actually hampered in the prosecution of immoral women. The finding of the federal judges had been clearly and explicity against the women, all of whom were particularly vicious, yet in spite of this their dismissal or their admission to bail was ordered."

The alleged interference by Harr in the San Francisco cases occurred, according to McNab, after the cases had been appealed to the United States Supreme Court and were awaiting adjudication in Washington.

BRIBERY CHARGED.

McNab made the direct accusation that Harr has, for some reason unknown to himself, "distinguished himself during his occupancy of office by violating procedure of the United States courts and releasing women of notorious character from arrest and from deportation orders, even when apprised of an indirect attempt to Harr, by undue interference in cases against these women."

It was declared by McNab that Harr, but undue interference in cases trought by the government against Lena Dupins, Helen Maregua, Louise Savarts, Valerie Calmels, Marie Louise Calmels, Marious Calmels, Marie Cardonnell and Pedro Garcia, the latter alleged to be the wealthy keeper of a Vallejo house of ill-fame, had succeeded in blocking many efforts by the United States attorney's office here to suppress white slavery and to deport prostitutes who had no legal claim to residence in this country.

"Harr's reason for his action in releasing the women," said McNab, "was that he did not believe their cases were properly applicable to law. In one letter he declared that he did not agree with the court, and he thereupon ordered the attorney's office to quash the cases."

Harr Takes Blame for Postponement

WASHINGTON, June 24.—Assistant Attorney-General Harr has assumed full responsibility of the order to Attorney McNab to postpone the trial of Robert Bruce and Sidney V. Smith, directors of the Western Fuel Company, on charge of customs coal frauds. This postponement mentioned in McNab's telegram of resignation to the President was ordered, declared Harr, to prevent a possible miscarriage of justice.

M'NAB MAY MAKE FURTHER CHARGES

WASHINGTON, June 24.—Revelations which may cause a wide scandal in official circles are hinted at and startling charges are threatened in connection with Attorney General McReynolds' handling of the billion dollar oil land case instituted by Attorney General Wickersham, which is, it is charged, to be made abortive.

United States Attorney McNab, it is reported, is threatening further charges against the administration unless he is immediately relieved. In this connection the oil cases and other legal matters in California, such as Southern Pacific cases, loom up largely.

Land estimated to be worth $1,000,000,000 is involved in these suits. From these lands the Southern Pacific and other concerns are wrongfully, it is said, taking large quantities of oil. E. S. Pillsbury of San Francisco, one of the attorneys for the Standard Oil Company and generally representing all the concerns involved in the oil cases, came to Washington and sought to effect a compromise with the government.

His proposition was to settle by giving the government one-eighth royalty on the oil taken from lands in dispute. The interior department found it could not accept without action of Congress and that was regarded as impossible of accomplishment.

The department of justice was then brought into the compromise plans. The Wickersham suits were to be allowed to rest. Instructions were sent to United States Attorney McCormick at Los Angeles to frame entirely new injunction proceedings against certain of the concerns taking oil from lands to which the government claimed title. It was planned that under the guise of a court order or stipulation the injunction was to be modified so as to permit wrongful occupants of the lands to operate under what would be practically a leasing agreement from the government.

HARR TELLS STORY.

In the coal fraud case continuance Assistant Attorney General William Harr has assumed the burden of responsibility. Secretary of the Interior Lane and United States Senator Francis G. Newlands of Nevada are involved in his story.

Secretary Lane, a short time ago, received a letter from Sidney Smith, the indicted Western Fuel director, in which it was stated that Smith had not been an active participant in the management of the company's affairs. The same plea was made for Bruce.

Secretary Lane forwarded this letter to McReynolds with the statement that he knew Smith to be a reputable lawyer.

Following this letter came J. R. Pringle of San Francisco, who was introduced to the department of justice by Senator Newlands. Pringle, as attorney for Smith and Bruce, told the attorney general that his clients, while directors of the Western Fuel Company, were not its active managers, but that the active management was in charge of John L. Howard, president; James Smith, vice-president and the secretary-treasurer of the company. All these officials were under indictment at San Francisco.

Their trial had been set for June 24, and under the federal law they could have been tried jointly.

Attorney General McReynolds then telegraphed United States District Attorney McNab to put these cases over to the autumn and McNab, already disturbed over the orders postponing the Caminetti-Diggs cases, promptly resigned.

LOESH SENTENCED TO 4 YEARS IN FOLSOM

Probation was denied by Judge Wells this morning to J. Loesh, also known as Losh, and he was sentenced to serve four years at Folsom for passing a fictitious check. The report of the probation officer was against Loesh, who had been in trouble in family. Loesh issued a check here for $27.50 drawn on the Italian Banca and signed by "J. B. Bratto." It developing later that there is no such person as Bratto. The check was endorsed by Loesh and cashed by J. M. Ward.

to go to trial when the cases can be reached by teh government."

The court then made an order continuing the cases until July 15, when they will be reset for trial if the successor to McNab be prepared to name a definite date.

OTHER CASES CONTINUED.

For a similar reason—his resignation—McNab obtained a continuance of the cases of Drew Caminetti, Maury I. Diggs, J. C. Wilson, P. P. Burke and Diggs and Caminetti are under indictment for violation of the Mann white slave act. Wilson, Burke and Willbrand are brokers indicted for conspiracy in connection with the defalcation of Charles F. Baker, former assistant cashier of the Crocker National Bank who is serving a ten-year sentence for embezzlement.

CONSPIRACY ALLEGED.

John L. Howard is president of the Western Fuel Company. Under indictment with him charged with having defrauded the government by systematic short weighing of over $300,000 are James B. Smith, vice-president; John L. Schmitt, treasurer; Robert Bruce and Sidney V. Smith, directors; F. C. Mills, superintendent; E. H. Mayer, assistant superintendtn and Edward J. Smith, weigher. The specific charge is conspiracy to defraud the government.

The attorney general requested that Bruce and Sidney Smith be not tried at the same time as the other Western Fuel men. McNab, however, has refused to try any of the cases.

CASES UP THURSDAY.

Thursday morning of this week the conspiracy and white slave charges against Maury I. Diggs and Drew Caminetti will be called for trial. In these cases, also, the attorney-general has issued orders to McNab, dircting that they be continued until fall.

McNab has declared that, in view of the attempts already said to have been made by Diggs and his attorney, Charles B. Harris of Sacramento, to suborn perjury to defeat the prosecution, this would weaken the position of the government greatly, and he will not make the motion to continue as ordered.

These, too, will be continued on motion of the court, to await the convenience of McNab's successor.

From all parts of California and adjoining states messages of approval have come to McNab for his stand. The letters were piled high on his desk this morning.

At the back of the littered desk stood a vase of American beauty roses, sent to the prosecutor with the compliments of the trial jury venire from which twelve men would have been drawn to try the Western Fuel Company officials had the cases been permitted to go on.

Other Charges Many Be Pressed

SACRAMENTO, June 24.—Provided that the federal authorities persist on the postponing of the case of Maury Diggs and Drew Caminetti for the reason that Immigration Commissioner A. Caminetti, father of the defendant, may be present at the trial, two charges, one a misdemeanor and the other a felony, still remain for the two men to face in the Sacramento county Superior courts.

The felony charge against Diggs alleges the desertion of his five-year-old daughter, that against Caminetti alleges the desertion of Naomi Caminetti and his one-year-old son. Both charges are pending in Justice Clarken's court.

District Attorney Wachhorst had intended to suspend these charges should the federal charges be prosecuted.

SEND PROTESTS.

Sacramento has been deeply stirred by the postponement of the cases of Drew Caminetti and Maury I. Diggs, who eloped from there with Lola Norris and Marsha Warrington, two school girls.

Telegrams and petitions are being wired and mailed to President Wilson by the score. Sermons have been preached here on the case, and the women's clubs are participating in the sending of messages of protest against the postponement to Washington.

During the three months that have elapsed since the beginning of the Caminetti-Diggs elopement, the principals and others figuring in the case have scattered widely.

Maury I. Diggs, whose companion on the trip to Reno was Marsha Warrington, has been in Berkeley with his father, I. P. Diggs. Drew Caminetti, who eloped with Lola Norris, returned yesterday from a long trip to the Mojave desert.

Miss Warrington recently obtained employment as a stenographer. Miss Norris is preparing to take up the same work. Both have been living quietly in their parents' home.

Mrs. Drew Caminetti has been living at her home in Jackson, Amador county, with her two-year-old daughter, Naomi, and her one-year-old son. She revisited Sacramento recently and entered Naomi in a photographer's beauty baby contest. The child was awarded first prize.

RECONCILIATIONS RUMORED.

Mrs. Maury I. Diggs, with her pretty five-year-old girl, Evelyn, has spent part of her time with her father, John M. Kincheloe, a wealthy land owner of Woodland, and part with her sister in Sacramento. From time to time there have been reports to the effect that Maury Diggs and his wife, and that Drew Caminetti and Mrs. Caminetti have patched up domestic estrangements caused by the elopement. Substantial confirmation or denial of the reports have not been had.

Among the women who have subscribed to appeals to President Wilson urging him not to accept the resignation of McNab are Mrs. J. L. Harbaugh, president of the Women's Council; Mrs. L. B. Hinman, president of the Aid Society of Westminster Presbyterian church; Mrs. W. H. Prouty, president of the Tuesday Club; Mrs. G. V. Watson, president of the Red Cross; Mrs. Charles Adams, Unitarian Alliance; Mrs. B. J. Milne, president of Ecclesia Club of the Christian church.

Cartridge Explosions Cause Two Deaths

CHERBOURG, June 24.—While the forts were firing a salute in honor of the arrival of President Poincaire, on his way to England, this afternoon, an explosion occurred which resulted in the death of two men and the serious wounding of four others. It was thought at first that a cannon had burst, but it later developed that several of the blank cartridges had exploded prematurely. Contrary to the regulations they had been placed close to the guns and a piece of burning wadding fell among them. The lieutenant in charge of the section has been placed under arrest.

President Poincare desired to cancel the dinner party aboard the Courbet and the fetes in the harbor, but the guests were already arriving.

Object to Diseased Aliens in Sleepers

ST. LOUIS, June 24.—A resolution demanding that the immigration bureau cease transporting undesirable aliens in first-class sleeping cars was unanimously adopted yesterday by the Millinery Traveling Salesmen's Association, holding their annual convention here.

"Diseased, criminal and insane men about to be transported are sent across the country in first-class sleepers," the resolutions read. "They are a constant menace, especially to women travelers."

Mrs. Homer Akins, Mrs. Charles Akins and the 18th-months-old daughter of Mrs. Charles Akins were injured.

DEMANDS APPOINTMENT OF A POLICE INSPECTOR

James P. Montgomery, an attorney, who recently filed charges against Chief of Police Walter J. Petersen with the city commissioners, and also demanded the removal of Lou Agnew as captain of inspectors, and the appointment of some one else to this place in accordance with the civil service rules, yesterday applied for a writ of mandate in the superior court to compel Commissioner F. C. Turner to appoint a police inspector.

Montgomery alleges that Petersen, while holding the position as chief, also holds technically his old position as captain of inspectors, never having resigned this place, and Montgomery demands the place be filled in accordance with the civil service rules. He asks for a court order to bring this about.

HARRISBURG, Pa., June 24.—The Senate passed finally today the House bill appropriating $450,000 for Pennsylvania's participation in the Panama-Pacific Exposition. The vote was 26 to 16, just the necessary number to pass the measure.

Several senators spoke against the appropriation as excessive. Senator McNichol, Philadelphia said he favored the bill as amended by the Senate because of the high cost of labor and material on the Pacific coast that will have to be taken into account in the construction of a state building.

WHY PUNISH HIM ANY FURTHER?

IS VICTIM OF 'FAKE' INITIATION

SHOULD A BOY WHO HAS GONE THROUGH THIS BE SUSPENDED FROM SCHOOL?

FRATERNITY CASES BEFORE DIRECTORS

School directors wrestle with problem of punishing youth initiated into fraternity at "fake" ceremony.

Frank Stuart, suspected of being fraternity member, suspended until he decides to answer questions.

Stuart and Milton McClure, pledged fraternity members, suspended.

Superintendent Barker reports on fraternities which will or will not disband. Barker's report to be used as basis of action on fraternity cases by board.

Parents' non-fraternity agreement and similar instrument to be signed by pupils submitted by superintendent and approved.

Teachers of department receiving pay as instructors at the state university summer session are denied pay from the department while teaching at the university.

The board of education ran against a peculiar problem last night, when the members found themselves in the dilemma of the mikado, in the comic opera, and couldn't make the punishment fit the crime. The crime was intention on the part of a high school boy to join a fraternity. He did not join, but intended to, and thought he had. School Director Miss Annie Florence Brown wanted to suspend him for six months. The boy and his friends, supported by Director Harry Boyle, held that intent does not constitute crime. The matter was finally referred to an executive session to be held Thursday afternoon.

Monroe Allen, the boy in question, declared to Principal C. E. Keyes of the high school that he ad been led to believe that he had been initiated into the Theta Chi, but later discovered that the initiation was a hoax. The Theta Chi fraternity, it is claimed, no longer exists in Oakland. The "fake" initiation was performed at the home of Tyler Henshaw, by Young Henshaw and three other boys, all bona fide members of the fraternity. The fact that real fraternity members performed the ceremony, and that the boy wore the pin, was declared sufficient evidence by Miss Brown.

HAD INTENTION, CLAIM.

"Anyhow," she declared "he had the intention of joining and that is just as bad as if he had. If he is not a member it isn't his fault."

"Well," asked A. L. Oliver, grand president of the Theta Chis, who attended to testify in behalf of Allen, "did you ever hear in your life of a man's being convicted in a court of law on intention? Did you ever hear where intent constituted crime? Now, suppose I intended to rob a bank. Could I be convicted before I did it? Can you put the cart before the horse? Why not sentence first, and try afterward, if you are going to work this way?"

"Well," said Miss Brown, "the boy wore the pin."

"Yes, and so do lots of girls who are not members," retorted Oliver.

WANTS LEGAL OPINION.

"It seems to me," declared Superintendent A. C. Barker, "that we are rather at cross purposes. Let us submit the whole matter to the district attorney. One thing I know. If this man gets off, there is likely to be a sudden influx of membership into this Theta Chi, which doesn't exist. Every fraternity man will belong!"

Oliver, as grand president of the fraternity, testified that while the fraternity had chapters in Berkeley, San Francisco and other cities in the state, it had none in Oakland.

"The boy you suspect is not a member," he declared.

Frank Stuart, suspected of being a fraternity member, refused to answer questions by Professor Keyes on the matter, and was brought before the board in the principal's report. He was ordered barred from school until he decides to meet the principal and answer questions and in other ways conform to discipline. Stuart and Milton McClure, pledged fraterniny members, were suspended.

TO ACT ON REPORT.

Superintendent Barker last night reported on a number of fraternities which had notified him of their intentions in regard to disbanding. These are as follows:

The Phi Chi will not withdraw. The Pi Delta Koppa and Phi Lambda Epsilon will. The Theta Chi has. The Lambda Theta Phi has. The Kappa Alpha Phi has no members, it declares, in high school, and will not have. It will not withdraw.

CONSIDER TEACHERS' PAY.

"With this report as a basis," declared Barker, "we know where we stand. Let us get together in executive session and go over the whole thing from start to finish. We will then know whether to extend leniency or not."

Besides the fraternity matter, the rule allowing teachers in the school department pay while attending the university summer school came up again, when it was decided definitely that no teacher should receive this pay if she also receives a salary from the university. This applies particularly to Mrs. V. C. Hicks of the child study laboratory. No protest was made, the teachers seemingly asking principally for the leave of absence.

Dr. N. K. Foster was voted a leave of absence to study in the east. Ida Gage, a teacher, resigned. Leaves of absence were granted Ethel Nicholson, Rebecca Billa, S. P. Meads, Eileen Bradley, Nellie Norman, Maude Pierce, Grace O'Rourke and others.

RE-ELECT EMPLOYES.

Permission was granted Myrtle Holland Smith, recently moved from Oakland to Berkeley, to finish her school work in this city. The following office force was unanimously re-elected for the coming year

Secretary of the board, A. L. Hannaford; accountant, J. L. Turner; clerks, [illegible] Farlane, M. Tobey, Elizabeth Damm, Walter G. Richards, school mechanic, F. C. Bignami, and purchasing agent, Harry W. Bridgeman.

Miss Brown strenuously opposed a suggestion made to favor men as manual training teachers, and especially the plan to pay them greater salaries.

OPPOSES "DOUBLE STANDARD."

"A woman can do the same work as a man," she declared. "We should pay both the same salary. I object to any discrimination."

"But a man's work counts most," laughingly declared Director Cook.

"I didn't hear your remark, Mr. Cook," retorted Miss Brown. The matter was referred to the committee on salary adjustment, to meet Thursday.

A fraternity agreement to be signed by parents, promising to forbid children from joining Greek letter organizations, with a similar agreement appended for the child, and a statement that both parent and child have read the law, was submitted by Superintendent Barker and approved. Routine requisitions were passed on, and minor supply purchases made.

BOY BANDIT SHOT WHILE IN HIS CELL

Member of Confined Gang Taken to Infirmary; Plot is Bared.

NILES, June 24.—Five young boys from East Oakland, styling themselves the "Roughneck Gang," and claiming to have a president, secretary and treasurer, were arrested yesterday by Constable Roderick in Decoto, where they had started, it is charged, on a criminal career by breaking into a house and making away with other people's property. As a sequel to their arrest and lodgment in the Niles jail, one of their number, Harold Cribbs, was accidentally shot in the back by another of the "bandits," "Laurie," or Clarence Frost. The revolver had been stolen from the house in Decoto, but in some way had escaped the eagle eyes of the stern officers of the law, Constable Roderick and his deputy, James Easterday, and had been hidden among the band all night.

Cribbs is at the County Infirmary and his condition is considered serious. The other boys are still in the jail here and will be held pending further information. Cribbs boastingly told the attendants at the Infirmary that the "bunch" had intended to shoot Roderick when he came to release them the next day from their cells into the general room for the prisoners to exercise. A key was found that would unlock the cell doors and the youths then endeavored to break down the heavy street door. This attempt was unsuccessful. While carelessly handling the revolver, Laurie Frost accidentally discharged it into the back of Cribbs and it was this accident that was the undoing of the gang.

All the boys are well known in East Oakland. The other members of the "gang" are: Clarence Frost, Jesse Fonda, Harry Low and Gould Reed.

PROBATE COURT UPHOLDS THOMAS PRATHER WILL

Attempt of Edson Adams to Secure Property Fails Completely

The will of Thomas Prather, bequeathing what was left of his fortune and also his debts, to the three daughters of Edson F. Adams, was admitted to probate today by Judge T. W. Harris. There was no opposition to the petition of Adams asking for the admission of the will to probate, and Edson F. Adams was named executor of the will, to serve without bond.

ADAMS DEFEATED.

..Edson Adams' attempt to secure the property given by the late Thomas Prather to his brother, Samuel Prather, has met with complete failure in the Probate Court. Late yesterday afternoon Judge Ogden dismissed the citation issued at the instance of Edson Adams' wife who has been appointed administratrix of the estate of Edson Adams, deceased

The decision of Judge Ogden is to the effect that Samuel Prather is entitled to hold the property given to him by his brother unless a court of equity could upset his title. In order to recover this property the Adams [illegible] jury in the Superior Court of this county. Samuel Prather and his relatives are delighted with the decision and they are willing to meet Mr. Adams at any time before a jury in the civil court. An interesting phase of the hearing just completed was Mr. Adams' pursuit of an old Sterns automobile once owned by Thomas Prather. It appeared from the testimony that about six years ago Thomas [illegible] his brother with a Sterns automobile. It seems that when Samuel received the machine he found that it was broken down and worn out so that he exchanged it to the company for a new machine, paying a certain amount of cash. Mr. Adams, through his attorney, Charles E. Snook, wanted to know all about this automobile. At times, in fact, the questioning was very strenuous and it seems that the Adams heirs were anxious to have the old-time automobile made a part of the estate. Samuel Prather proved that the old machine had been given to him by his brother and had been long since disposed of. The old automobile was the source of much amusement among those in attendance in court.

S. PRATHER CROSS-EXAMINED.

Samuel D. Prather was cross-examined at great length by Attorney Snook, representing Edson Adams, who personally prompted many of the questions that were asked in an effort to tangle up the witness. Prather, however, had a clear memory, and appeared to have nothing to hide from the court or the attorneys for Adams, and answered all questions without the slightest hesitation. He told how for many years he and his brother Thomas had been associated in many business enterprises together, and how, as Attorney Chapman once summed it up, "they had worked together for the last 20 years, having one common pot for their finances, into which they placed their earnings and took their profits."

Prather testified that he had been with his brother continually throughout the weeks of is last illness, and that Thomas Prather had talked over business mat- [illegible] testified that the sick man one day, possibly feeling what his physicians had already told the relatives, that he would not recover from the illness, asked for pen and ink and then and there voluntarily executed the last transfers of such property as he wished to give his brother Samuel.

The witness also stated that at one time they sold their interest in a meat comppany, in which Thomas Prather had not invested any capital and which Samuel Prather had supplied with all the meat from his ranch, but the proceeds of which, $125,000, were all placed in the bank credited to Thomas Prather, just as other funds the property of both men, and in which each had an equal interest, was deposited. Thomas Prather, he testified, always held the money, and was the banker for their business affairs. It had always been so right up to the day of Thomas' death.

"The citation is dismissed," said Judge Ogden.

It was a good victory for Samuel Prather.

ARRANGE PLAN TO RECEIVE DANIELS

Chamber Names Committee to Arrange for Secretary's Entertainment.

Preparations will be made at once for the visit of Secretary of the Navy Josephus Daniels to Oakland, according to the action of the Chamber of Commerce this morning, when a committee was appointed to arrange details. Victor Metcalf, himself formerly holder of the position now occupied by the distinguished visitor, will be chairman of the committee, and W. A. Wann, Theodore Gier, E. K. Jackson and A. Jonas, will complete the committee. An effort will be made to arrange so that the banquet to be tendered to the automobile transcontinental tourists from Indiana will not conflict with the reception to the secretary, and the committee will endeavor to keep the two dates apart.

A communication from William R. Wheeler, manager of the traffic bureau of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, was read, in which the point was strongly insisted upon that the Panama canal should be an American canal in the fullest acceptation of the term. In furtherance of this contention the writer announced the issuance of a circular letter, to be sent out by the hundred thousand, sustaining the right of the United States to control the canal and its approaches and stating that this right could not be surrendered to foreign powers or in any manner limited.

URGES STEAMSHIPS.

Congressman Julius Kahn sent a copy of a bill introduced by a Pennsylvania representative recommending an appropriation of $25,000,000 for the construction of twenty steamships of not less than 8000 tons burden, to be at the service of the federal government for use as transports and supply ships in cases of sudden emergency.

A. H. Irving, chairman of the manufacturers' committee, spoke of the trip to be made under the committee's auspices over the lines of the Oakland, Antioch & Eastern Railway on June 28. A stop of two hours will be made at Concord, where a midday banquet will be served. President Galindo and Secretary Keller of the Concord Chamber of Commerce meeting their Oakland guests at the railway station

E. A. Young, the newly elected director, for two terms president of the Merchants' Exchange, was welcomed to a seat on the board.

A communication from the Charles Nelson Steamship Company, looking toward a resumption of its traffic service with Oakland on condition of the guarantee of a certain fixed tonnage value of business, was referred to the manufacturers' committee.

KNOWLAND WRITES

The following letter from Congressman Joseph R. Knowland was filed:

Mr. A. A. Denison, Secretary Chamber of Commerce, Oakland, Cal.

My dear Denison: I wish to acknowledge the receipts of your wire of the 13th inst., stating you were forwarding letter and endorsements of Colonel Rees' harbor plan asked by various commercial organizations of Alameda county.

At the Richmond hearing the plan was only incidentally referred to. I learned after conference with Colonel Rees that his plan is as yet but tentative. It will not be submitted to the government until he has had further conferences with the commercial bodies and municipal authorities of the various cities interested. When an agreement is reached rest assured that I shall be only too glad to do everything [illegible] government approve the plan. I am fairly convinced that a comprehensive plan for the entire east side of the bay should be adopted at this time.

INVITE DANIELS TO INSPECT SITE

Formally Asked to View Oakland Waterfront for Dry Dock.

Formal invitation was extended to Josephus Daniels, secretary of the United State navy, to inspect the Oakland waterfront with a view to the location of the new dry dock and navy yard on this harbor, the invitation being the subject of a resolution passed by the city council this morning. The resolution was introduced by Commissioner of Public Works Harry S. Anderson.

Secretary Daniels will be here Thursday, and the Oakland commissioners hope to take him on a tour of the waterfront during his visit. If he looks favorably upon the proposition to locate the navy yard here the commissioners will immediately launch a project to have the people vote to donate a site on the city's tidelands to the federal government for the navy yard.

"We are ready to have the Oakland waterfront site stand upon its merits," declared Commissioner Harry S. Anderson today. "We wish to take Secretary Daniels over the situation and see how it impresses him. If he looks upon it favorably we will go to the bat. The matter of giving away tidelands must be submitted to the vote of the people and this will be done if there is a chance of gaining the navy yard and dry dock for this city. I think the people would see the propriety of donating a site to the federal government, as the city is patriotic and would be glad to be of service, and the donation would mean great advantage to the city as well in a commercial way. We have sufficient land to make such an offer on the western waterfront."

The resolution was unanimously passed as follows:

"Resolved, That the commissioner of public works be and he is hereby authorized to invite the Hon. J. Daniels, secretary of the navy, to inspect a portion of the city of Oakland's waterfront property, with the view of recommending same as a suitable site for the location of the proposed new naval base, consisting of a dry dock and navy yard, on San Francisco bay."

VALLEJO AND SAN JOSE GAME SCHEDULE CHANGED

SAN FRANCISCO, June 24.—President Al Baum of the California Baseball League made the announcement today that the series between Vallejo and San Jose, from July 2 to 4, would be played at the latter city instead of at Vallejo. This includes the Fourth of July game.

The change has been considered advisable because of railroad conditions around Vallejo and the fact that the Calistoga Fourth of July celebration is going to be the main attraction in that vicinity for the week

POLICE ON THE TRAIL

MISS ANNA PETERS

SAN FRANCISCO, June 24.—Miss Anna Peters, a Stockton society girl now stopping with friends in San Mateo, complained to the police today that she had lost or had been robbed of a little silver jewel case containing hundreds of dollars worth of diamonds and other jewelry.

Miss Peters came up from San Mateo yesterday and went to the Fairmont hotel. Later she visited a local theater and it is her belief that the jewels disappeared somewhere between the theater and the depot at Third and Townsend streets. Upon discovering her loss the young woman notified Night Clerk Doyle at the Fairmont and a search was made about the premises in the belief [illegible] there. They were not found, however, and the police weer notified. So far nothing has been heard of the jewels. Miss Peters is at present in San Mateo.

Cushing of Oakland, a former prominent Standard Oil Company official. Cushing had been in ill health since his retirement from the company several years ago. He was in charge of the Seattle, Washington, branch of the Standard Oil Company

Increasing indisposition determined him to resort to the Springs as a possible benefit to his health, but relief was not obtained and he died there yesterday.

The body will be brought to Oakland and the funeral will be held from the parlors of Albert Brown tomorrow. Rev. Charles L. Mears of this city will officiate at the last rites

FOUND! HONEST BUNCO DETAIL DETECTIVE!

Two Names Mentioned for Honor, But which is Which?

SAN FRANCISCO, June 24.—That there was at least one honest detective on the bunco detail during April, 1912, was the conclusion drawn from testimony given by Mike Gallo on the witness stand in the trial of Detective Arthur Macphee and Charles Taylor before Superior Judge Lawlor this morning. Gallo related that at one time when he was arrested he and four companions whom the police had "run in" each paid $25 to Paul Nett with the understanding that he would turn it over to Macphee and Taylor.

"I understood that there were two other detectives by the name of Frank McConnell and Thomas Curtis who were working with Macphee and Taylor," said Gallo. "The money was deposited in the safe at 544 Broadway. Either Macphee or Taylor said that one of the other detectives would not take any money and that he would find out in a day or two and use his influence to have him thrown out of the job."

This is the third time that the names of McConnell and Curtiss have been mentioned in the bunco investigation. Which one of the two demurred about taking money from the bunco men Gallo said he did not know

After searching for several weeks for Charles Forne, one time waiter at 544 Broadway, Detective John Rotta located him last night. He was questioned by District Attorney Fickert and refused to give any information about the place.

It is not known whether Forne can be induced later to take the stand.

ADDS TO TESTIMONY.

Gallo, who was recalled in the case, added to his testimony that the money which had been deposited in the safe at 544 Broadway, was later taken out and that he did not know exactly to whom it was given.

Loglani Ravigo, known as "Chico" Ravigo, considered the prosecuting trump card witness, arrived here last evening and was placed on the witness stand this afternoon. After his arrival Ravigo related his story which implicated former Captain of Detectives Wall. He says that during his operations in San Francisco he had paid money to every police officer who had worked in the bunco detail. In one instance he said he paid $1155 to Detective McGowan with the understanding that Captain Wall was to be paid. The money was obtained by fleecing Dondero. After that job Ravigo left for St. Louis from which place he was brought back in charge of detectives

De Martini was also recalled to the stand today, as was Charles Fauda, a drug clerk of 303 Columbus avenue. Fauda said that he had often been in the cafe at 544 Broadway and had seen different policemen in the place

Another witness examined today was Manual Sehenone, a convict serving four years in Folsom for grand larceny. He testified as to "tricks" turned by himself and De Martini. He said that he had paid 15 per cent of the money obtained from these jobs to the police through De Negri during 1911.

Old Overalls Save Life of Workman in Plunge Down Shaft

LOS ANGELES, June 24.—W. E. Dufessy, a workman, put away as a treasure today an old pair of overalls which saved his life when he plunged down an elevator shaft in a new building in Pasadena. Dufessy was on the fourth floor when a timber fell, striking him on the head and toppling him over into the open shaft.

He plunged down, but as his body went past the second floor the old overalls caught on a projecting spike and held. Dufessy was hanging head downward and yelling when fellow workmen came to his aid.

HIDDEN ROMANCE SWEET

By LAURA JEAN LIBBEY

[Copyright, 1913, by Laura Jean Libbey.]

"Once I thought you true and faithful,
And I loved you passing well;
Then your voice would thrill my being
With a bliss no words can tell."

LAURA JEAN LIBBEY.

WHAT a world of hidden romance lies in the words "Sweethearts once"! They breathe their own eloquent story of two who have loved well and parted. They were unable to forget each other. There are those who think that early love is not lasting, and there are others who will tell you that the sweet and tender freshness never dies out of the heart.

Often a very slight affair may part two fond hearts. Each grieves sorely for a time, then they try to live and learn to forget. Thus runs the world away.

That women are more faithful to an early love than are men has oft been proven. With the loss of her lover many a maiden loses all hope for a future love. She would not put [illegible] reasons it out that joy and wedlock never were intended for her. Even though she does all this, there still lingers in her heart the hope that perhaps some day he may return to her, although he may have crossed the seas to different lands. This thought dies out of her heart in sudden gloom when she hears of his marriage to another.

Then indeed her star of hope sets. She settles down to a loveless exist- [illegible] in the great, cold world worth while. The lonely sweetheart constitutes herself a second mother to her brothers and sisters. She finds later on in life that their lukewarm affection for her is not wholly satisfying. The thought comes wearily to her how happy her old lover must be with wife and children of his very own. She quickly puts the thought aside as to whether or not his memory ever harks back to her.

Even a fickle lover may not always forget a brief bright past, a far off, sunny land, and a bright, loving maid. If the blow perchance falls upon him of losing the mate of his bosom he often considers that the blow is dealt him because of the love he cast aside in his early manhood. Then it is that the thought comes to him that perhaps it may not be too late to make what reparation lies in his power of offering her the remnant of his lonely heart in marriage.

He hears that she is still single, and he knows that he is the cause of the sad, lonely life which has been hers. Younger, fair and by far more beautiful women may lay siege to the widower's heart. By their smiles and wiles they may attempt to lure him from his loneliness.

The world opens its eyes wide when it hears that he has wed again, and is amazed at his choice of an aged, snowy haired bride, his second choice. They do not know of the golden, hidden romance from which the dust of years has been brushed aside. He does not note the change as others see it in the girl who was his sweetheart in other days. For him there is the same love light in her eyes, the same warmth of love in her gentle, kindly heart.

She takes him as he is. The little ones are dear to her because they are his. Why should such a man care for the world's criticisms? In wedding his old sweetheart he secured the best kind of a wife—who loves him for himself.

ENGAGEMENT RING.

Dear Miss Libbey: I am going to have a shower on my girl chum, who is to be married next month. I have no one to ask for advice in this line, so come to you for it. Would it be all right just to decorate the rooms with crepe paper? Would ice cream and cake be enough to serve, or ought there be coffee and sandwiches, too. In giving a wedding present, should it be named for both bride and bridegroom? I know the fellow quite well. Could you advise me as to some games, etc., for the shower? If flowers are used in decorating, should they be given to the honored guest afterward? In serving refreshments, should the honored guest be the first one served? When a couple become engaged, isn't it for the girl to say what kind of a ring she would like? I am corresponding with a fellow; have known him for four years, but it has been three years since I have seen him, for he has never been to see me since we came east. Do you think he is worth writing to? He is a farmer of about 28 or so. I am 20 years old. M. H."

You might decorate the room in crepe paper, if you care to do so. The wedding present should be sent to both bride and bridegroom. It is unnecessary to give the flowers to the guest of honor after the affair is over. It would be most courteous to serve the guest of honor first. Unless the young man asks her the girl does not say what kind of a ring she would like. If you find his letters interesting and enjoyable, you might keep up the correspondence, otherwise, better discontinue writing.

SHALL SHE BE ANGRY?

"Dear Miss Libbey: I have been keeping company with a young man for about two months pretty steady. He has taken me away from a fellow I had been keeping company with for very nearly a year, and today he called me up and said he was sorry he could not see me Saturday or Sunday as he had been seeing me for two months. Now, would you advise me to be angry at him for doing that, as I like him and feel very much hurt about it. S."

I don't think you have cause to be angry with the fellow if he called you up beforehand and told you of another appointment. You certainly cannot expect him to devote every minute of his time to you, especially if you are not engaged.

HOW TO TEST HIS LOVE.

"Dear Miss Libbey: I am 19, deeply in love with a very nice young man two years my senior. I do not know if he loves me or not, but sometimes I think he does. Do you know of a good way to test his love? R."

Better wait until he tells you he loves you. That's the safest plan. Don't try to force any particular proof, or you will succeed only in losing his interest in you.

"HE IS SICK ABED."

"Dear Miss Libbey: My sweetheart is sick in bed at his home, and I would like to know if it is proper for me to go and see him. Please understand we are engaged. Shall I bring anything for him? If so, what would you consider proper? "AN ENGAGED GIRL."

If you are on friendly terms with his family, it would be entirely proper for you to pay him a visit. You might bring him some flowers.

CAN THEY GET ALONG ON $80.

"Dear Miss Libbey: You would greatly oblige the writer by informing us if a newly married couple can get along on $80 a month, providing they pay a me- [illegible] LILLIAN."

With great economy on the part of both, a newly married couple can get along on $80 a month. There are any number of married couples living on less than that amount who manage to get considerable pleasure out of life.

DOCTORS DID NOT HELP HER

But Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Mrs. LeClear's Health—Her Own Statement.

Detroit, Mich.—"I am glad to discover a remedy that relieves me from my suffering and pains. For two years I suffered bearing down pains and got all run down. I was under a nervous strain and could not sleep at night. I went to doctors here in the city but they did not do me any good.

"Seeing Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised, I tried it. My health improved wonderfully and I am now quite well again. No woman suffering from female ills will regret it if she takes this medicine."—Mrs. JAMES G. LECLEAR, 596 Hunt St., Detroit, Mich.

I went to him for a while but did not get well so I took Lydia E. Pink- [illegible] ing two bottles I was relieved and finally my troubles left me. I married and have two little girls. TO PROHIBIT SALE OF DEADLY DRUGS Frequent Accidental Deaths Cause Chicago Aldermen to Introduce Order.

CHICAGO, June 24.—Aroused by unusually frequent suicides and accidental death by poisons three aldermen last night introduced orders requiring the health committees to draft an ordinance prohibiting the promiscuous sale of deadly drugs. All were passed.

"These poisons may be purchased as easily as cough drops," asserted Alderman Schaefer. "Lizzie Silverman gave up her life Sunday, a victim of a poison taken accidentally for which no antidote is known and which may be bought by anyone. This body is, in a way, responsible for her death because of its backwardness in providing an ordinance preventing the sale of poisons without a prescription."

COLLIER MAY TRY FLIGHT OVER OCEAN

NEW YORK, June 24.—Reports received in this city from Marblehead, Mass., say that Robert J. Collier, the publisher, may attempt to cross the Atlantic in a hydroplane, which is in course of construction, and will be ready for him in the autumn.

The machine will be twice as large as the craft built for the United States government and will be equipped with a special 20-cylinder engine with 200 horsepower, which has been imported at a cost of $20,000. It is made almost entirely of aluminum, and will carry a passenger in addition to the aviator.

INDIANS TO BE GIVEN TRIBAL OWNERSHIP

DALLAS, Tex., June 24.—Cato Sells, United States Commissioner of Affairs, announced here last night that it would be the fixed policy of his bureau hereafter, as far as possible to give Indians tribal ownership of cattle on their grazing lands. He proposed gradually to reduce the number of leases of grazing rights now held by white men. Mr. Sells was in Dallas and Fort Worth yesterday buying cattle to be placed on a Montana reservation under this system.

'BELLA DONNA' IS PLAY OF THRILLS

The Nazimoved Melodrama Is Stage Version of Robert Hichens' Story.

"BELLA DONNA."

Dr. Meyer Isaacson	Charles Bryant
The Hon. Nigel Armine	Herbert Percy
Mahmoud Baroudi	Robert Whitworth
Dr. Hartley	Edward Fielding
Sir Henry Grebe	William Hassen
Ibrahim	A. Romaine Callender
Hamza	Claus Bogel
Monks	Arthur Hurley
Mrs. Chepstow	Mme. Nazimova
Mrs. Marchmont	Amy Veness
Marie	May Galyer

Nazimoved melodrama is the stage version of "Bella Donna," brought to the Macdonough last night. Though inconsequential, it possesses certain things, plenty of opportunity for Nazimova's moody art and a number of her bizarre gowns. The star is Mrs. Chepstow, a thoroughly wicked woman who hesitates at little to achieve her ambitions.

At the opening of the play, Bella Donna has passed forty—she admits to thirty-eight. She has a distinct passion for ma- [illegible] it. She is also a divorced woman. The divorce ruined her socially and since that time she has lived as best she could, but in the main magnificently, for many men have admired her and been at her feet. Just as things are coming to a somewhat serious pass Bella Donna meets the Honorable Nigel Armine. He is a younger brother of a peer and is just back in London from Egypt, where he has been engaged in the reclamation of a portion of the Egyptian desert. In Armine, Mrs. Chepstow sees a possibility [illegible] character if she can inveigle him into marrying her and this she does in spite of determined opposition from all his friends.

THREE ACTS IN EGYPT.

The first of the four acts of the play is placed in the consulting room of Doctor Meyer Isaacson, a celebrated London specialist, and the other three acts have Egypt for their locale, for Armine takes his bride immediately after their marriage to the country of the Sphinx and the Pyramids. Hardly has the newly wed couple reached the banks of the Nile before Bella Donna learns that her husband's brother, who was childless, has been presented by his wife with two boys, which effectively barred Armine from any reasonable possibility of the succession. The anger which fills her at this discovery is somewhat assuaged, however, by the friendship of a Turco-Egyptian, Mahmoud Baroudi, who is one of the wealthiest orientals in Egypt and whom they met on shipboard. Bella Donna's interest has begun to wane in that of her husband and to grow in Baroudi.

Baroudi has no liking for open scandal, especially with the English, and so with true eastern diplomacy he insinuates that Armine might be gotten rid of. He supplies a slow poison with which the deed is done and loans the Armines his houseboat, at a reasonable sum, for a trip up the Nile.

ISAACSON SAVES HIM.

Bella Donna enters heart and soul into the plot and would have succeeded, had it not been for the timely arrival of Armine's friend, Doctor Meyer Isaacson, who restores Armine to health. But when he tells the latter of the plot against his life and of his wife's connection with it, Armine not only refuses to believe but orders the doctor from the house, only to be told a little later by his wife that it is all true, that she hates him and wants to get away from him and loves Baroudi, who can understand her and give her what she wants.

Bella Donna, when she seeks the protection of her lover finds that she has made a big mistake by her confession, for Baroudi has warned her that she must never tell the truth of their relations to her husband. He casts her off. Returning to the villa, Bella Donna finds the door is shut in her face. Nothing is left but the desert and the night and through the gate, leading out from the garden, she goes slowly into both as the final curtain falls. Charles Bryant, who was brought especially from England, plays Doctor Isaacson; Herbert Percy is the husband, Nigel Armine, and Robert Whitworth is the Egyptian, Mahmoud Baroudi.

Nazimova's support is capable and the production is worthily staged.

FIREBUG AT WORK IN OIL FIELD TOWNS

BAKERSFIELD, June 24.—A $50,000 fire yesterday in Taft makes the second great fire in the oil field district within two days, the first being a $150,000 fire in McKitrick Saturday. Both fires occurred between 2 and 3 o'clock in the morning. Each started in a saloon and officials of the company are working along the idea that a fanatical firebug is at large in the oil district. The fire at Taft this morning burned out the part of the town known as Boust City. It started in the saloon of G. B. Ross and destroyed several stores before being gotten under control. The insurance on the destroyed property is $13,000, leaving a total loss of over $37,000.

JORDAN TO STUDY PEACE OBSTACLES

WASHINGTON, June 24.—Dr. David Starr Jordan, Chancellor of Leland Stanford University, who is starting on a year's tour of the world to lecture in England, China, Australia and elsewhere on the peace movement, called on Secretary Bryan at the State Department yesterday and told him that he thoroughly approved and would preach the doctrines of Bryan's proposed peace treaties. Dr. Jordan said he expected to study at first hand in Alsace and Lorraine, in the Balkan States and in China, some of the complicated problems which have prevented the establishment of lasting peace.

THE LATEST FASHION NOTE

Says: "It is a wise precaution against getting holes in a delicate hosiery to powder the shoes before putting them on." Many people sprinkle the famous antiseptic powder, Allen's Foot Ease, into the shoes, and find that it saves its cost ten times over in keeping holes from hosiery as well as lessening friction and consequent smarting and aching of the feet.

New and Stringent Marriage Laws Are Being Favored

CHICAGO, June 24.—Legislation creating state boards to have jurisdiction over marriage laws as a means of combating the increase in insanity will be asked in each state, according to action taken yesterday at a conference of alienists and neurologists with the Chicago Medical Society.

Each state medical Society will be asked to take steps to initiate laws providing for the sterilization of mental defectives and giving a state medical board power to regulate marriages.

AFFIDAVITS BACK SUIT FOR LEGAL SEPARATION

SAN FRANCISCO, June 24.—Sworn affidavits were filed yesterday with the county clerk supporting the divorce complaint of Philip Monroe against Lizzie Monroe. The depositions were made by William and Louise Little of Sacramento and uphold Monroe's contention that his wife has an affinity in the person of one Charles Nagle.

The plaintiff resides in Berkeley but has real estate offices in this city. He is 65 years of age and his wife, who was formerly Lizzie Hopkins, proprietress of a Market street hostelry, is 60. They were married in July, 1912.

It is true that women more frequently suffer from kidney trouble than men. It is also true they suffer more intensely, owing to their more sensitive organism. Katherine L. Norton, New Bedford, Mass., says: "I had a terrible pain across my back, with a burning and scalding feeling. I took Foley Kidney Pills as advised, with result certain and sure. The pain and burning feeling left me, I felt toned up and invigorated. I am glad to recommend Foley Kidney Pills." They are tonic in action, quick in results. FAVORITES ROMP ON IDORA STAGE

"Jack and Beanstalk" Well-Played by Park's Big Company.

Old King Cole, Sinbad the Sailor and other heroes and heroines of nursery rhyme and fairy tale appeared last night before the crowd at Idora when "Jack and the Beanstalk," a musical extravaganza, using the old children's story as material for a show, was staged. The little comedy is charming and also was remarkably well played by the Idora company; in fact, it is by far their best offering so far.

Mindel Kingston as Jack makes a pretty boy and romps through the part, climbing the beanstalk, foiling the plans of the Giant Ruse, and, between times, singing and dancing in a way to charm even the crustiest old giant that ever lived.

Old King Cole (Ferris Hartman) was the leading comedy part. Hartman managed to inject a few topical lines into the portrayal of the old king, of convivial tendencies. Fred Snook was the giant. Fred isn't big, but stilts helped. George Ebner as Sindbad the Sailor, Lawrence Bowles as the captain of the 40 thieves, Robert Fitzsimmons as another thief, Alice McComb as Mother Hubbard, Grace Du Vall, Fay Poston, Erma Gage and Harry Pollard complete the cast. Pollard burlesqued the part of the fairy queen. He was also called on for a "filler" while the curtain wait occurred between scenes. He employed it urging the audience to applaud the Oakland girls in the cast.

The little fairy tale is charming in the old memories that it recalls, and should prove a great favorite with the children. It will run all week, and will be followed by "Girofle Girofla."

GOW LEE SEEKS CACHE BUT FAILS TO FIND IT

PALO ALTO, June 24. — Gow Lee, a gardener, would not seek grapes from thorns nor figs from thistles, nor did he suspect that Marshall Black, his former employer, would hide his talents in the ground. But when the deposed president of the Palo Alto Building and Loan association went to the penitentiary on an embezzlement charge, the wise man from the east remembered that he had seen Black steal through the garden patch and deposit several jars in the water tank. So Gow went to the tank to seek the $120 his master still owed him when he departed to don prison stripes.

James Colby, caretaker of the estate, noticed last night that the water was running low and that the vegetable patch was growing thin and tawny. He examined the pump and found nothing wrong, turned on the gauge and set out for a tour of inspection.

He had not gone far when Gow's cries made him retrace his steps. He mounted to the brim of the tank and discovered the gardener swimming on the crest of the rapidly rising waters.

Gow didn't find any coin in the tank. Colby rescued him with a hook.

Mr. Allen will retain his position as organist and choir master of the First Presbyterian church, Berkeley.

AVIATOR FALLS 1000 FEET TO DEATH IN SEA

LONDON, June 24. — An aviator, Fairbairns, was drowned off Shoeburyness last evening. He had flown from Brooklands and was experimenting with a new type of machine with which he projected a trans-Atlantic flight in July.

Fairbains fell into the sea from a height of 1000 feet and sank before a friend, who was cruising in the vicinity, was able to reach him.

The machine, which was of 350 horsepower, was completely inclosed and provided with a glass conning tower.

'COASTING CLOCK' LATEST DEVICE

Mechanism Records Time Car Runs Without Power; Six Installed.

The latest feature in the policy of increased efficiency and comfort in car operation inaugurated by the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railways has been announced in the shape of a "coasting clock," which is expected by the company officials to nearly revolutionize car operation. The new device, which was first tried out on the West Eighth-street line, is now on the College-avenue cars, and has, it is said, met with striking success.

The new device records on a moving sheet of paper the time that the car "coasts" or runs without power. Motormen making the greatest saving in "juice" thus are shown what they have accomplished. The records are posted and already there is a keen rivalry among motormen who ride with the six clocks so far installed.

The new device, according to the company, has several advantages. It [illegible]ing that current may be saved. A car no longer will be brought up sharp with a jerk.

It will, also, declare the officials, cause more even running and will mean exact time in leaving terminals. The clocks on the West Eighth-street line, installed May 25, have caused a remarkable increase of efficiency there, according to the company. The first week a saving of 27 per cent in power was recorded. The second week this was increased to 24 per cent, and the third week to 29 per cent.

CLOCK CARRIES PAPER.

The new device consists of a clock carrying with it a roll of paper. An indicator marks on this the time when the car is moving, with power and brakes shut off. The strip at any time will show just how much of its time the car has "coasted."

Besides expecting to show through the device a decrease in power consumption, the company declares that the even stopping and running time insured will more than pay for the devices, which will be installed as soon as possible on other cars.

"Every motorman in the instruction room," said Superintendent Potter, "was enthusiastic about the new device. It shows him what he is accomplishing. He can tage out the paper at any time and compare it with yesterday's. He can see where his is improving and how.

"The new clock will mean careful operation, increased efficiency of our men, better running time, even speed, comfortable starting and stopping, and will work great good for the service."

CLASSES POPULAR.

The motormen's instruction classes are receiving special attention from the company with the inauguration of the new clocks. These schools have become noted for their effiency in turning out motormen, and are now declared better than ever. The motormen's school, coupled with the fact that Oakland carmen are the highest paid in the United States, make the local company unique among public service corpoartions, standing closer to its men and working in harmony with them.

Several contests are being planned by motormen with the new clocks and they will try to establish records on different lines and challenge others to break them.

WILSON WORRIES HOUSE REPORTERS

Absent-Mindedly Puts Speech He Read Into Inside Pocket.

WASHINGTON, June 24.—President Wilson is not usually absent-minded, but he laughed heartily today when told how an unpremeditated act of his yesterday threw the house reporters into a state of frenzy. The president read his speech to the joint session of congress from a typewritten manuscript and the official reporters therefore did not take the usual notes, depending on Mr. Wilson to turn his brief over to them for reproduction in the Congressional Record.

"Where is the president's manuscript," demanded Fred Ireland, one of the veterans, as he searched the desk from which the president had spoken. He called a messenger.

"Run up to the press gallery and see if some of the correspondents have not captured it."

Nothing was forthcoming, however. The correspondents hadn't seen the original and no copies had been received at the capitol. Eventually Mr. Ireland made a hurried trip to the White House where, to his relief, the manuscript was turned over to him. The president had absent-mindedly folded it and tucked it into the inside pocket of his coat on concluding its reading.

ONE COMMITTEE MAY HANDLE SUPPLY BILL

WASHINGTON, June 24.—Radical reform in the government's finance system, to give the house committee on appropriations sole control of the big supply bills instead of their distribution among eight committees as at present, was urged in the house today by Representative Fitzgerald. His speech was a forerunner of the budget discussion in the Democratic caucus tomorrow.

Fitzgerald submitted a number of proposed amendments to the rules to carry out his plan. He attacked Representative Shirley's plan for a budget committee.

DENOUNCE CONDITIONS ON GIANT IMPERATOR

HOBOKEN, N. J., June 24.—A thousand members of the crew of the giant liner Imperator, now in this port, held a mass-meeting here late last night and adopted resolutions denouncing working conditions on the vessel, demanding better food, better sleeping accommodations and a nine-hour day. The resolutions will be presented to the Imperator's commander.

The protestants include stewards, pantry cooks, coal trimmers and firemen. Speakers who exhorted them said that the men had been "treated like pigs, poorly fed and overworked." Their quarters were crowded, it was said, sixteen hours work a day was not unusual and the sanitary equipment was inadequate.

ELECTROCUTED WHEN PIPE TOUCHES WIRE

FRESNO, June 23.—W. A. Burbank, foreman of the Bowman alfalfa ranch, and Orville Freeman, an orchardist, were instantly killed, and E. V. Cook, a ranch owner, probably fatally injured at the Cook ranch, four miles east of Strathmore late yesterday when a water pipe they were lifting came in contact with a high tension electric wire, carrying 6000 volts.

Cook, who recently came from Los Angeles, was installing a pumping plant on his ranch, and called upon [illegible] and Freeman, [illegible] to assist him. A suction pipe was being lifted from the well, and all three men [illegible] struck the feed wire, causing a connection with the current of heavy voltage.

Burband had his legs twisted about the pipe and received the full force of the shock, dying instantly. He was burned beyond recognition. Freeman's injuries were less extensive, but death was instantaneous. Cook was picked up unconscious and severely burned, little hope for his recovery being held.

The Perfect Baby Of The Future

A Simple Method That Has a Wonderful Influence upon The Future Infant.

Too much cannot be said for a wonderful remedy, familiar to many women as Mother's Friend.

It is more eloquent in its action than all the health rules ever laid down for the guidance of expectant mothers. It is an external application that spreads its influence upon all the cords, muscles, ligaments and tendons that nature calls into play; they expand without pain, without strain.

Mother's Friend must, therefore, be considered as a direct influence upon the character and disposition of the future generation. It is a conceded fact that, with nausea, pain, nervousness and dread banished, there is stored up such an abundance of healthy energy as to bring into being the highest ideals of those who fondly theorize on the rules that insure the coming of the perfect baby.

Mother's Friend can be had of any druggist at $1.00 a bottle. It is prepared by Bradfield Regulator Co., 239 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. Write them for an instructive book to expectant mothers.

NAPA'S MAYOR IS INJURED IN CRASH

Two Badly Hurt When Auto Is Struck by Train.

AUBURN, Cal., June 24.—Westbound train No. 5, with Conductor Woods in charge, struck an automobile a half mile above Emigrant Gap yesterday afternoon, where the county road crosses the Southern Pacific track through the snowsheds.

The occupants of the automobile, Mayor D. S. Kaiser, Fire Chief C. F. Otterson and A. Zayler of the Elks' Club, all of Napa City, were thrown out. Kaiser and Zayler were hurled 40 feet down the track, and Otterson the same distance up the mountain side. Zayler, who was driving the car, sustained a broken leg, arm and nose and a badly cut cheek. Kaiser was hurt on the head, and it is feared his skull is fractured. Otterson escaped unhurt.

The wounded men are in the Sierra being attended to by Drs. Mackay and Shoemaker.

Miss E. Hausen, a trained nurse of Lockeford, San Joaquin county, who was a passenger on the train, gave material assistance to the injured men.

The automobile was smashed, and several of the large timbers supporting the sheds were shattered into kindling. Kaiser is unconscious and the doctors are unable to determine the full extent of his injuries. Little hope is entertained for Zayler's life. The victims of the accident are prominent residents of Napa.

The men were returning to Napa from a pleasure trip to Lake Tahoe.

Kaiser, who is serving his second term as mayor of Napa, is president of the Napa Savings Bank. His wife recently started on a trip to the East, and a telegram has been sent asking her to return immediately.

Zayler is the proprietor of a Napa hotel. When his wife heard of the accident she departed in an auto to join her injured husband.

STRATTON TURNS DOWN DINNER BID

Retiring Collector Refuses to Hear His Office and Work Praised.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 24.—Collector of Customs Frederick S. Stratton yesterday sent the following communication to the Chamber of Commerce, the commercial banks, and the other business interests which cobined to give him an engrossed testimonial Saturday, and to invite him to name a date on which they could give a banquet in his honor:

"Gentlemen: You have been kind enough to tender to me a written testimonial and ask that I name the date for the banquet. It is idle for me to assert that I did not know that such a movement, although deprecated by me, was in some way in progress. I nevertheless, appreciate very deeply your kind words and courteous expressions. I have, however, done nothing which would entitle me to a banquet, representing no cause or interest but simply carrying out the policies of the president and representing him as executive officer in this district.

"Further, I do not believe that at any such banquet criticism would be made of my administration. Very probably adulatory addresses would be delivered. I could not and cannot bring myself to listen to the same and thereupon affect surprise in my reply. Therefore, under the circumstances, while accepting your tokens of esteem, I, nevertheless, ask to be excused from naming date of banquet or attending one in my honor."

The collector of customs, further, has notified a delegation of customs employes, who have called upon him in regard thereto, that any attempt to subscribe for a silver service or automobile, as suggested by them, would be met with dismissal while he is in office. If tendered after he leaves office the collector has emphatically asserted that, while entertaining kindly sentiments, he will not accept any gift whatever.

ANOTHER AUSTRIAN OFFICER TAKES LIFE

VIENNA, June 24.—A second suicide in connection with the Russian war department occurred yesterday. Lieutenant Lebel, who had been employed at the war office for 35 years, after a conference with the head of his department, returned to his office and shot himself through the heart.

On May 26 a tremendous sensation was caused by the suicide of the chief of the general staff of the eighth army corps, Colonel Alfred Redl. He was stationed at Prague, but was in Vienna on personal business. It later was disclosed that Colonel Redl had been betraying Austrian military secrets to the Russian government.

No cause has yet been assigned for the suicide of Lieutenant Lebel.

LOUIS, June 24.—Federal officials here who have been investigating the charge of using the mails to defraud on which Mrs. Ella McClendon, former postmistress at Sturdivant, Mo., recently was arrested, learned yesterday that she is a claimant for a large part of the estate left by George M. Nicholas of Rockingham county, W. Va., who died from the effects of poison last August. The estate is valued at $125,000 to $250,000.

When Nicholas died, his four brothers, finding no will, took charge of his estate and his brother Charles was appointed administrator. Fourteen days after the death, the administrator received a package bearing what appeared to be a Chicago postmark and containing a wallet and several papers.

WILL IS DISCOVERED.

Among the papers was the purported will in which George M. Nicholas bequeathed to Mrs. McClendon the Nicholas "home farm"—a tract of several hundred acres valued at $50,000 to $75,000. The residue to the estate was left to "my two brothers." Nicholas had four brothers and this clause in the will was confusing. The purported will was written on cheap note paper with a pencil and was not dated—a formality not necessary under Virginia laws. In the will Nicholas explained that Mrs. McClendon had cared for him in St. Louis after he had been injured there in a street car accident.

Enclosed in the package was a letter from the sender in which it was stated he had robbed George Nicholas and having read the will he thought it his duty to send the document to the Virginia authorities so the woman named therein might receive her share of the estate.

WILL FIGHT CLAIMS.

The four brothers have secured counsel and will fight the claims of Mrs. McClendon. Mrs. McClendon was arrested a few weeks ago on a charge of attempting to obtain from a bank in Georgetown, Colorado, $900 left there by John Howan, who died at Gewar, Mo.

The letter sent to the Colorado bank was signed "Ed Rollers" and enclosed a check payable to "Sellers" and purporting to have been signed by Howan. Postoffice inspectors say that Sellers was also [illegible].

LOS ANGELES, June 24.—There was no answer when the divorce suit of Mrs. Anita Baldwin-McClaughry against Hull McClaughry was called in Judge Monroe's court yesterday afternoon, upon McClaughry's application for a change of venue to San Francisco, and the matter was continued a week.

NINE MISSING OF CREW OF 'BEAVER'

Report Made to War Department on Sunken Government Steamer.

WASHINGTON, June 24. — Nine "unaccounted for and undoubtedly drowned" was the report made to the war department last night on the upsetting of the government survey steamer Beaver Sunday on the Mississippi river near New Madrid, Mo. The list of missing:

C. S. WILLIAMSON JR., engineer.
[illegible]
J. C. LAMB, pilot.
A. D. COSTEN, steam engineer.
OWEN LOGAN, stoker.
H. ESTES, C. BROWN, PHILIP WRAY and H. S. SHERRILL, laborers.

The report said that every effort was being made to recover the bodies and that a diver had been engaged to make an examination of the steamer. The boat is at the bottom in 18 feet of water.

BULGARIA'S WHEAT HARVEST IS LARGE

Male Population Engage in War, But Crop Promises Well.

WASHINGTON, June 24.—Although it has been popularly supposed that virtually the entire male population of Bulgaria was engaged in a death grapple with the Turk, nevertheless the wheat production in Bulgaria this year promises to be greater than in 1912. Figures received by the depart of agriculture from the International Institute of Agriculture at Rome announced that the yield promises to be 67,977,000 bushels, which is 106.5 per cent of last year's crop. The same dispatch declares that Italy's crop will probably be 183,719,000 bushels, or 110.9 per cent, while the crop of India will reach 353,316,000, a slight decrease from last year, and Japan will produce approximately 27,029,000 bushels, or 105.2 per cent.

Less acreage is devoted this year to the cultivation of the sugar beet in Belgium and France. The less acreage is made up however by increased areas planted in Denmark and Hungary.

ARMY SHORT OF HORSES.

WASHINGTON, June 24. — The army is now short at least 1000 horses —a greater shortage than ever before has existed. The war department already has expended $100,000 allowed by Congress March 4 last, and while another appropriation of $175,000 will be available July 1, at present prices, not nearly enough horses can be had to meet the need. Fortunately, however, prices are somewhat lower than last year.

RATIONS A-PLENTY FOR OLD SOLDIERS

Veterans At Gettsburg Celebration Will Be Well Taken Care Of.

GETTYSBURG, Pa., June 24.—"There will be ample accommodations and plenty of rations for all veterans who come to Gettysburg for the battle anniversary celebration next week, even though the number exceeds by ten thousand the original estimate," was the statement made by officers of the regular army at camp headquarters yesterday.

"Here we have over 5000 tents, nearly all of which are now in place," said one officer. "Every one is supposed to be large enough to receive eleven men. We have apportioned only eight to each tent. By making it nine you have additional accommodations for 5000 men and you can increase this by another 5000 without crowding any one. It is true that we based our supplies on an estimate of 40,000 veterans, but the amount is elastic and can be made to care for many others.

"For instance, we allow a pound of bread for each man a day. Few men eat this much, or even half this much. Other supplies are based on the same liberal plan, and every veteran who comes here will get shelter and all the food he needs.

WOMAN SHOT BY LOVER IN QUARREL

Marie Nevens May Die As the Result of Attack of Suitor.

SEATTLE, June 24.—Marie Nevins, 35 years old, a lodging house keeper, was shot and probably fatally wounded late yesterday by Edward McAllister, 22 years old. After shooting the woman McAllister telephoned the police and was waiting for them when the officers arrived to take him into custody.

The shooting occurred in the lodging house conducted by Mrs. Nevin. McAllister shot three times at the woman, two bullets taking effect. At the City hospital, where Mrs. Nevin was taken, it was said she had only a slight chance for recovery.

McAllister made a complete confession to the police. Jealousy, he said, was the cause of the shooting. He had known Mrs. Nevins about five years, during which time he had paid her attention. He called on her yesterday afternoon and during an argument she reached for a pistol and McAllister shot her.

MANY ALIENS COMING TO FARMS OF WEST

NEW YORK, June 24.—With the arrival here yesterday of the steamship Carpathia of the Cunard Line from Austria and Italy there came 1371 farmers and their families, all from Austria and Hungary, and all agriculturists by heritage and experience.

An unusual proportion of the third-class immigrants who came over today were children, there being 170 of these, while some of the families numbered a dozen members. Nearly every family is bound for the west, where the heads of families will take up farming and become American citizens.

AUTO ACCIDENT VICTIM DIES UNDER OPERATION

STOCKTON, Cal., June 24.—Frank Esquede, a painter, died last night on the operating table while three surgeons were operating upon him for a blood clot on the brain, caused by a jar he received Sunday afternoon, when an automobile in which he was riding, turned turtle when it ran into the ditch to avoid a collision. Three companions of the deceased, who were painfully bruised, deem their escape from death as miraculous.

NUISANCE ISN'T SO IN HAWAII STATUTES

HONOLULU, June 24.—That a bad odor, even though it emanate from a pig pen, constitutes no nuisance is the contention of Attorney-General Thayer of the territory.

Acting on the complaint of several improvement clubs, the territorial board of health visited and inspected a hog ranch, the clubs having complained that the pig pens were unsanitary, noisome, gave off a bad stench and were, accordingly, a nuisance. The authorities, after a careful inspection and smell, decided that they could no nothing further than recommend a few minor improvements.

"An unpleasant odor doesn't constitute a nuisance within the meaning of the law," said Thayer. "This fact has been proved in the states in nuisance cases brought against packing companies."

PENNSYLVANIA WRECK VICTIMS DOING WELL

ROCHESTER, N. Y., June 24.—All of the sixty persons injured Sunday in the wreck at Cuylerville of a Pennsylvania excursion train are doing well.

Officials of the road said yesterday that both the conductor and engineer of the wrecked train had reported that the wreck was caused by a broken bolt on the tender of the engine which let down the trucks and resulted in derailment. Experts declared that the report that rotten ties caused the wreck was disproved by the manner in which the accident happened.

"Had the ties been weak," said the road's general agent here, "the engine, which is the heaviest part of the train, would have left the track first. The engine did not leave the track at any time. The tender was first derailed, pulling with it three of the six cars."

TO RESUME WORK.

GREENVILLE, June 24.—Orders from San Francisco arrived yesterday [illegible] the Great Western power dam, work on which has been suspended since it was shut down last fall, owing to the change from a multiple arch type of dam to a gravity dam. Plans for the new dam have been under preparation for some time; extensive borings have been made by geologists and they have resulted in no serious change of location of the new dam, which, as was claimed for the old, will impound the largest body of water in America, a million and a quarter acre feet.

Making the Highways Safe.

District Attorney Hynes gives notice that he intends to put an end to the unlawful speeding of autos and motorcycles on the highways of Alameda county. The frequenecy of accidents, owing nearly always to reckless violations of the law, has prompted him to take measures for a firmer enforcement of the laws enacted for the protection of the public. It is his intention to make the public roads safe for anybody to travel. The practice of unlawful speeding has become so common that the most careful and conservative drivers are exposed to perils which they cannot guard against. The speed maniac, often inflamed by liquor, is a menace to everybody on the road.

The District Attorney has decided that the public can only be protected by firmly and impartially enforcing the speed regulations. He drives a motor car himself, and his personal observations have led him to the conclusion that the only way to make the highways safe is to compel drivers of motor cars and motorcycles to keep within the law. The speed abuse grows with indulgence, and it exposes motorists who drive with care at moderate speed to the peril of collisions which they cannot always avoid, and for which they are in nowise responsible.

The county boulevard leading through Dublin Canyon has been virtually transformed into an automobile race course. Men come from afar to see how fast they can speed their cars over it. It is the favorite driveway for joyriders, who put no limit on speed after they pass the boundaries of the city. One high-power car tearing at breakneck speed endangers the lives of every other person on the road, and by the same token one racing automobile will do more damage to the road than forty traveling at a reasonable rate of speed.

Mr. Hynes does not propose to place difficulties in the way of ordinary motorists, but rather to relieve them of danger and difficulty. He can only do this by requiring all to keep within the law. Hence he will have the boulevard policed and marked with signs setting the speed limits. The signs will put autoists on their guard, if not their good behavior, and arrests will follow if the signs and warnings be disregarded.

In this way he proposes to dissipate the delusion that speed maniacs can come to Alameda county and defy the law with impunity. Some of the joyriders from across the bay seem to think the boulevard is an invitation to violate the speed laws. They have therefore proceeded to convert it into a race course, and many of them act as if the inhabitants of the country had no rights on the road that a joyrider should respect. The condition has become so acute that the District Attorney proposes to interpose the strong arm of the law to check an evil which has reached alarming proportions. It is his purpose to punish all who wantonly exceed the speed limits and neglect to comply with other regulations, such as keeping lamps lighted after dark and observing rights of the road, that the public highways may be made safe for everybody to travel. His resolve is to be commended, as dictated by humanity and justice and fealty to his oath of office.

Thus far only fourteen states have made appropriations for exhibits at the Panama-Pacific Exposition. Not a single Southern State is included in the number. In the most of them constitutional provisions stand in the way, but in cases like this a state constitution should be amended to permit a laudable and patriotic act to be done. Anyway, there will be exhibits from every State. Unfortunately the Civil war raging in Mexico will prevent the Southern republic from taking the prominent part at the Exposition that was intended.

From Farmhand to First Citizen.

"Flags that were never flown before were abreeze at half-mast in this city yesterday in respect to the memory of W. R. High," says the Modesto Herald.

The public manifestations of grief and respect brought forth by the death of Mr. High deserve more than passing attention because Mr. High's career carries a lesson that cannot be too strongly impressed on the minds of young men and women. Why was Mr. High a successful man of business and an exceptionally popular man in his community? Success in business did not curdle the milk of human kindness in his breast, and wealth did not remove him from the sympathies of his fellow men. He proved that a man could be a good neighbor, a good friend and a public-spirited citizen as well as a successful banker. Nor was he born to wealth; success came to him because he was industrious, honest and thrifty, and did everything he was set to do with the firm determination to do it as well as he possibly could. He never shirked or scamped his task, thus proving himself to be trustworthy and conscientious.

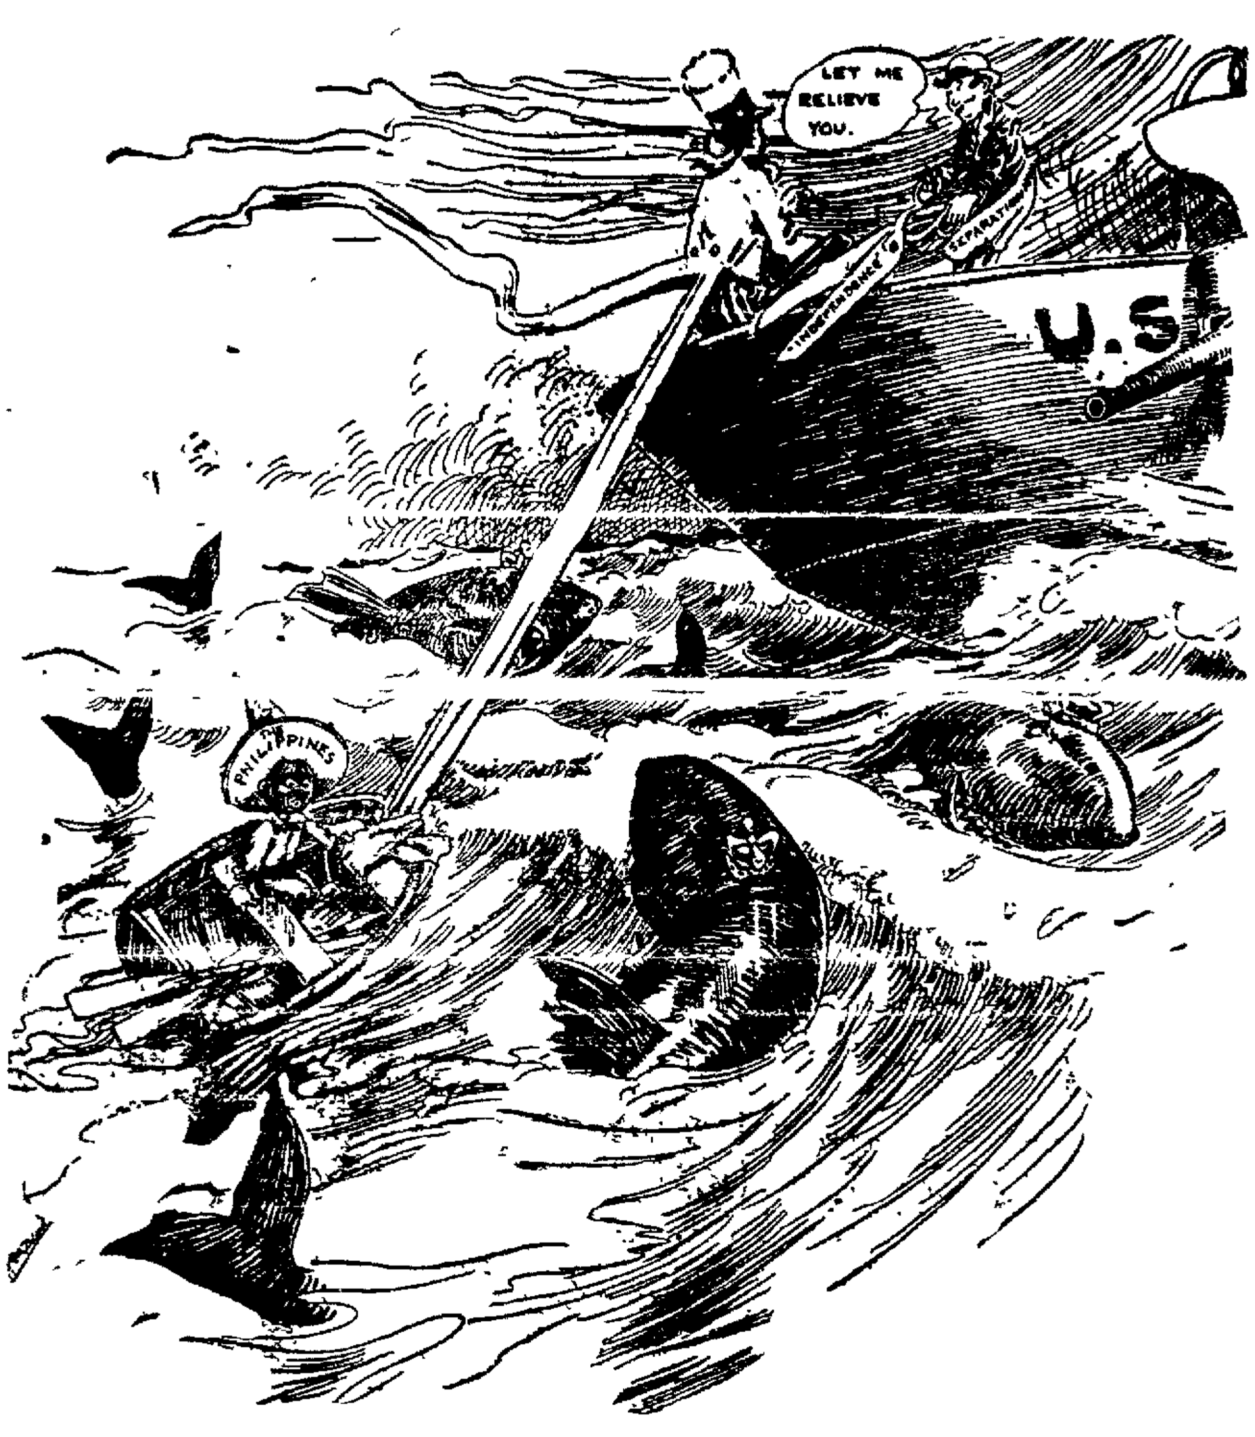
Mr. High came to California in 1882, so the local chronicler relates, and began life here as a farm hand. That avenue of occupation is still open to whoever will take it. He worked hard, saved his money, and became a farmer on his own account, first renting land and then buying land for his own use. He was thorough in everything he did, and made a success as a farmer where others failed. Starting without money or lands, he outstripped many who started with both. Being a progressive man, receptive to new ideas, he became an ardent advocate of irrigation and a leader in the irrigation enterprises which have made Stanislaus county so prosperous in recent years.

Then he took up banking, and made a success of that. But the Modesto Herald adds, "yet in this community he was never thought of as a bank president, but as a man of sterling integrity, of high civic activity, and as virtually pre-eminent among the men who do things." High praise indeed!

The door through which Mr. High entered to success still stands open. The stair he climbed to success is free for all to ascend. He had unusual talents, doubtless, but his virtues counted for a great deal more than his talents. He was not afraid to work nor ashamed to work at the humblest calling, and in after life when worldly success had crowned his efforts and he ranked as the first citizen of his town, he had no prouder boast than that he began life as a farm hand and achieved his success in the same county, where as a penniless stranger, he followed the plow for a livelihood. Such men will be successful anywhere. [illegible] with men of that type any country will be great.

The zeal of the federal administration for investigations will [illegible] be cooled by an investigation directed at itself.

SHALL WE LET HIM GO?



—EXCHANGE.

Some Old-Fashioned Philosophy.

Commenting on a recent article in THE TRIBUNE, the Stockton Record says:

"They called him old-fashioned, but he was ahead of his time for all that, says a contemporary in speaking of the late Will S. Green of Colusa, and of how many of his ideas of development in Colusa are maturing after his death. Yes, and there are a lot of 'old-fashioned' men today who are laughed at when they urge caution in making changes of fundamental public policies. They are laughed at when they defend the lessons of experience or express doubt as to the wisdom of some pending measure. The best progressive is the man who, while never worshiping precedent or experience, still refuses to enter the field of experiment without rcognition of almost immutable and unchanging laws of human experience. He seeks to progress in conformity with those laws. The more clamorous advocate of change refuses to recognize any truth that is liable to run counter to his desire for popularity."

It is refreshing to find our Stockton contemporary preaching a doctrine which THE TRIBUNE has been roundly abused in the past for preaching. Sudden and violent changes are seldom beneficial. Innovation is not to be derided because it is departure from precedent, but it should be examined carefully and applied cautiously. Rash and radical experimentation is always to be discouraged. Which is not to say that methods and manners cannot be improved, and should be improved, but every change proposed is not practicable. Reformers often defeat the ends they desire to accomplish by refusing to take into account conditions and the facts of human nature; they are unwilling to allow change to come gradually or give people time to adjust themselves to innovations which affect their business or habits. Evolution is slow and sedate, but it is steady and sure progress. Yet theorists despise the processes of evolution, and strive for instant revolutions or cataclysms without taking heed of consequences.

Precedents are always worthy of examination. Sometimes the precedent outlives the reason for its creation, but in the main precedents are based upon some excellent principle or some expedient that was necessary and wise in its time. When obsolete or made the vehicles of abuse they should be discarded, but never till something better has been found to take their place. Originally they were innovations. The moral is not to go ahead too fast, and never deride the lessons of experience. The ancients dreamed of flying, but fable tells of what happened to the chap who tried to fly without the necessary equipment. Notwithstanding the discoveries of modern science, flying is still a perilous mode of transit. Nevertheless theorists continue to urge people to fly when they had rather walk and when flying would simply mean disaster. Wise men will be content to go slow as long as they are going ahead in safety.

The Stanislaus irrigators have reached a practical agreement with San Francisco in regard to Hetch Hetchy, but Robert Underwood Johnson, former editor of the Century magazine, forbids the plans. Mr. Johnson represents the nature lovers and objects to Hetch Hetchy being utilized as a source of water and power supply. He protests against a national park being defaced by dams, reservoirs and power plants, and calls upon Congress to stay its hand until the opponents of the San Francisco grant can have a chance to be heard.

After chasing and catching the sugar lobby, the Senate finds that it has two tails. The domestic producers had a bureau working against putting sugar on the free list and the Federal Sugar Company, which refines foreign sugar, had a bureau employed to spread the propaganda of free sugar. The head of the Federal Sugar Company is C. A. Spreckels, who supported Wilson for President. We are glad the President has found his lobby. Now that he has established its identity, he can estimate the evil it has accomplished.

John L. McNab was not asked to resign, but he knew the time for him to resign was when he was ordered to delay proceedings in cases affecting persons able to exert a powerful influence at Washington. His resignation has had the good effect of inviting attention to a matter of far more moral significance than the sugar lobby. Mr. McNab knows when to resign and how to resign.

Twenty Years Ago Today

The funeral of the late Leland Stanford was held today in the quadrangle of the university at Palo Alto. A huge crowd watched the services which were conducted by Bishop Nichols, after which the body was placed in the family mausoleum on the campus.

Forty cases of scarlet fever have been reported in Oakland the past month. Dr. Adams believes that the water supply is the cause of the present spread, and will begin an investigation of the dairies at once to determine if the water used by them in the milk has not something to do with the disease.

A record crowd is at present within the fair grounds at Chicago, three more foreign buildings being opened to the public.

Piedmont Baths will soon be the scene of a brilliant aquatic carnival, where swimming contests and water feats will be the feature of the evening. The baths will be beautifully illuminated and decorated.

No run is reported on the San Francisco banks, everyone believing their accounts to be safe. Confidence is supreme in the transbay city.

The next convention of the Baptists will be held at Highland Park, this city, in connection with the commencement exercises of California College, the Baptist institution. The college is reported to be in excellent condition, $75,000 being the valuation placed on the real estate with $42,000 endowment. An average of 100 scholars attend the academy annually.

GIRLS AND THE STAGE

Popular imagination does not often link the girl of the stage with everyday needs and problems. Many people cannot think of an actress as otherwise than a person on a footing of equality of millionaires and society. There are others whose view of the actress, especially of the lesser among then is that she is a venal sort of person against whom you must guard your son, especially if he is a prospective heir or something of the sort.

As a matter of fact, the girl of the stage is first and foremost a girl—somebody's daughter. For every woman who goes into the theatrical profession with high hopes and ambitious for great fame there are a score or more girls who go on the stage because they have to make a living, and the work behind the footlights seems to them more congenial and, perhaps, better paying than selling ribbons or pounding a typewriter.

With the advance of the nickel and dime theaters acting has become a trade with thousands of girls. The girl who takes part in a ten-minute sketch, or who sings a couple of songs every half hour during the afternoon and evening in such self. She does not take herself seriously as an artist. She merely works for a living, and when her work is done for the night she goes to her room and to bed, tired, exhausted and often blue. She dreams not of millions and wine suppers, but of a humble home where a mother prays for her and blesses her from afar. She is in need of sympathy and protection fully as much as the girl who works in a department store or office, and even in a factory.

This sympathy and protection is now on the way to the stage girl. Bishop Greer and the Rev. Dr. E. M. Stires, two prominent New York clergymen, are heading an organization which proposes to come to the aid of the girl whose work is the others' play. The organization will in a few days open a club house for chorus girls with rest rooms, a library and a restaurant where meals will be sold reasonably. During the weeks that the stage girl who is a stranger in New York is out of work, or at any other time when she will be in need of companionship, of friendly associations, and of a wholesome and not too expensive meal, she will find all of these things at the club presided over by Bishop Greer.

This home for stage girls who are strangers in New York is a much needed this work will be the recipients of blessings from grateful mothers in every part of the country.—Chicago Tribune.

DESIRE FOR REVENGE

A remarkable instance of an innocent man being condemned to death for murder and having his innocence proven almost at the foot of the gallows, is reported from Upper Egypt.

A very rich landowner was found dead on his doorstep. An inquiry was opened, and his two brothers accused a certain Omran Mahmoud and his son of the crime, which they swore they saw him commit.

The accused men declared their innocence, but, despite the desperate and eloquent efforts of their advocate, Omran Mahmoud was sentenced to death and his son to imprisonment for life and the date of the execution was fixed.

The advocate sent in a petition for the commutation of the death sentence to the khedive.

Time passed, and he heard nothing as to the fate of his petition. The day before that fixed for the execution the advocate determined to approach higher quarters. Just as he was about to proceed on this errand two men were shown into his office. They were the brothers of the murdered man.

They had come to confess to him that their evidence had been false, and that Omran Mahmoud and his son were innocent of the murder of their brother. They had merely accused them of the crime because they wanted to keep the authorities from suspecting the true murderer, on whom they intended themselves to take vengeance.

The real criminal was at once arrested, and on the eve of the execution Omran Mahmoud and his son were advised of what had happened.

This incident is illustrative of the lengths to which the native desire for revenge will go. It is, of course, not unusual for one man to accuse another of a crime to avenge some long-nursed grudge but it is surely unique for innocent men to be accused of a murder because the family of the murdered person wish to avenge their loss themselves on the murderer.—Pall Mall Gazette.

SPELL? WHAT'S THE USE?

The Hon. Frank B. Willis, of the beautifully named town of Ada, Ohio is the champion speller of these United States, having distanced all comers in a Washington spelling bee. We suppose Mr. Willis, school teacher, college professor and Representative in Congress, could not avoid winning. There are a few peculiar people who simply cannot spell incorrectly. But the more we consider Mr. Willis' achievement the worse it looks. Frankly, the gentleman from Ohio ought to be ashamed of himself.

It was not ordinary tongue twisters that Mr. Willis spelled correctly. It was a collection of word horrors that anybody would be ashamed to whisper to himself alone in the dark. "Fuchsia" and "gneiss" and "daguerreotype" on the contest list are all right. So are "desuetude" and "cantaloupe." But who ever heard or wants to hear of "bdellium" or "ogee" or "cedrelaceous"?

We have looked up these disagreeable mouthfuls, and they really are in the dictionaries. But so are thousands of other words that can easily be avoided through a long and perfectly respectable life. (Those ardent souls who have read the Bible through will have hit "bdellium" in Genesis—if they were awake. But we do not concede that reading the Bible through is a necessary condition precedent to respectability.)

It is a pleasure to add a word of personal sympathy for the newspaper correspondent who failed on the word "caoutchouc." We can think of nothing evil enough to say of this word, undoubtedly the worst in the English language. It is a nasty, treacherous, sneezy reptile. Its use ought to be prohibited by the Constitution.

We say of "caoutchouc" as we say of the rest of the words by which Mr. Willis triumphed, that we don't know how to spell it and we are proud of the fact. Furthermore, we hope we never will know how, and we view with distrust anybody who does.—New York Tribune.

600,000 Americans Die Needlessly

Six hundred thousand deaths occur annually in the United States which could be prevented if people would stop treating every-day disorders in the present careless and indifferent manner, with remedies that are insufficient.

One million Americans are always needlessly sick who should be well.

There are a thousand and one different remedies on the market, each guaranteed to "cure" (?). Not understanding their symptoms correctly and not clearly understanding the cause of their trouble, people are almost compelled to take these so-called "cures," relying upon the word of the manufacturer that they will be benefited by them.

To prevent this unnecessary death rate, people must know more about their disorders than the manufacturer tells them, whose main object is to sell as much and as often as people will buy, and who is not responsible beyond the sale of his product.

Like the Red Cross Society, which is enlightening and instructing people in sanitary and hygienic methods, so the Blue Cross Company and the Blue Cross Circle have been formed to teach the rudiments of self-treatment and the correct use of medicine.

No attempt is being made to interfere with the province of the doctor, but 95% of all disorders are at present treated by people themselves in a haphazard and slipshod fashion due to insufficient knowledge. To improve these unsatisfactory conditions and supply the right knowledge and the right medicine is the aim and object of the Blue Cross.

Information can be obtained free of charge at all Blue Cross Stores. This information extends over the proper use of medicine and the proper treatment of disorders, of a nature which can and should be treated by yourself.

Books and pamphlets covering the majority of diseases, their symptoms and treatment can be obtained free of charge at all druggists or at the Blue Cross Stores. These books are written in a clear, comprehensive and easily understood style, and are full of sensible advice and suggestions how to treat disorders and how to prevent their return.

The opening of the Oakland Blue Cross Store, 508 Fifteenth street, opposite Taft & Pennoyer's, will be announced soon in this paper.

The mission of the Blue Cross is to fight unsatisfactory existing conditions with proper instructions and the right kind of medicine. The medicines used are genuine Clinic Prescriptions proven by physicians in their private practices.

Help this worthy cause by demanding Blue Cross Preparations when next you buy medicine of your druggist, and you will do good to yourself, good to others and save money.

BLISS WEDDING WAS BRILLIANT

* * * * * * * * * * * *

MISS PAINTER IS PRETTY BRIDE

At one of the most brilliant ceremonies of the season, in the presence of several hundred guests from the smart sets on both sides of the bay, Miss Janet Painter last evening became the bride of Dr. Philip Paul Bliss of Santa Cruz in Christ Episcopal church, Alameda. The Reverend Everett W. Couper read the impressive words of the Episcopal ceremony to the kneeling couple before the chancel rail. The church was a bower of pink blossoms, hundreds of roses mingled with other blooms and handsome ferns making a charming setting for the quaintly gowned bridal party.

A touch of old-fashioned daintiness lent charm to the costumes of the pretty maids who preceded the petite bride to the altar, and the bouquets they carried were all of the prim old-fashioned kind, of tiny flowers surrounded by lace frills.

The bride was a picture of beauty in a gown of ivory white satin, exquisitely embroidered in pearls, and draped with point lace on the skirt and corsage. Her veil was a family heirloom of rare old lace, and was worn by her mother at her own wedding ceremony. It was held close to the bride's golden hair with a coronal of orange blossoms. Her bouquet was of white orchids and lilies of the valley, tied with white satin ribbon in the style of our grandmothers' days.

SOCIETY GIRLS ATTEND.

The attendants on the bride were her sister, Miss Pauline Painter, as maid of honor, and a bevy of society girls from both sides of the bay as bridesmaids. They were Miss Vera Talbot, Miss Frances Ramsey, Miss Aimee Raisch, Miss Mildred Breuner, Miss Marguerite Durney and Miss Alfreda Wright.

Miss Pauline Painter wore a quaint [illegible] with a tunic of shadow lace and elaborated with knots of tiny silk roses. She carried a large formally arranged bouquet of Cecil Bruner roses and forget-me-nots, edged with a lace frill.

The bridesmaids were all dressed alike in light rose-pink taffeta, made with two wide flounces of lace around the skirt and trimmed with touches of blue. They were finished with full ruches of tulle at the slightly low round necks. Each carried a round bouquet of baby roses and forget-me-nots held in a lace holder.

The bride's father, Edgar Painter, gave her into the keeping of the groom. The best man for Dr. Bliss was his brother, Dr. Vance Bliss, and the ushers were Dr. Edward Morgan, Dr. Herbert W. Allen, Dr. E. Howard Bush, Charles E. Gibbs, Allan Hamilton and Ralph Palmer. Mrs. Painter, mother of the bride, was gowned in a handsome costume of white charmeuse brocaded in silver and trimmed with rare lace.

RECEPTION TO 150.

A reception to a hundred and fifty guests was held at the home of the bride's parents on Grand avenue after the ceremony. The residence was decorated in roses and pink blossoms, and the marquee on the lawn, where the wedding supper was served, was done in the same colors. At the bride's table, where the wedding party and a few friends were seated, white blossoms were used.

Dr. Bliss and his bride will enjoy a honeymoon of several weeks' motoring southward through the state, and will make their home in Santa Cruz, where a handsome new home awaits them at the end of their journey. Dr. Bliss is a prominent professional man of Santa Cruz, where the romance had its inception during a summer visit of the beautiful little debutante at the Painter country home.

The bride has taken an active part in social affairs in the bay cities since making her bow to society at a smart function at the Claremont Country Club a season or so ago. She has been a favorite in smart set circles on both sides of the bay, and her departure is the cause of much regret.

OPPOSE ELECTRIC LIGHT ORDINANCE

BERKELEY, June 24.—The city council at its meeting this morning considered the draft of a proposed ordinance intended to bring about a reduction in the present charges for electric light service. The matter was presented by Mayor Wilson and met with opposition from President John A. Britton, of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company, who urged several arguments against it. Definite action was postponed in order to permit the making of several amendments recommended by Britton and others who spoke for and against the measure. In its present form the draft calls for a reduction of one cent throughout the light and power charges, making a maximum charge for domestic use of six cents, for commercial use of six cents and for power of three cents. Britton contended that the enforcement of the proposed ordinance would decrease the company's Berkeley receipts forty per cent, declaring that he represented a body of 3000 stockholders who had invested $120,000,000 in this state, from which they are entitled to draw a just and sufficient income. R. F. Woodward, representing the Great Western Power Company, argued briefly against the proposed reduction in rates, being controverted by Mayor Wilson, and by F. J. Martin, who presented a petition signed by 250 residents, asking for municipal ownership of the electric lighting plant, and its operation as a branch of the city administration.

ROWELL SPEAKS ON PROGRESSIVES

Chester Rowell, editor of the Fresno Republican and prominent California Progressive, was the speaker at the weekly luncheon of the Social Workers' Club of Alameda county today, held on the Capwell roof garden. His subject was "The Progressives, Their Social Betterment Program," and the address was one in which he outlined the hopes and present work of the newest party.

Rowell outlined the organization of the bureaus and departments, the purpose of which is to further the social betterment work that the party's platform urges. He said in part:

"The unique thing about the Progressive party is that it is engaged in social betterment policy and that it is the only political organization to be thus engaged; all the others are engaged in the giving out of offices to favored workers.

"Whether or not the Progressive party is socialistic in design is a question that I do not think I can answer. I am not in favor of the socialistic movement, but this should not be taken as a sign that the whole party is inclined that way. The only reason I can see why this question has arisen is our quixotic stand on many public questions. We stand for modern ideas to meet modern conditions, and until the people awaken and see the new problems before them, instead of dreaming their lives away in the past, wrong will remain triumphant and the old-fashioned machinery will continue to grind out half-manufactured moth-eaten laws."

The chairman of the meeting was C. C. Young of Berkeley, speaker of [illegible]

SPEEDING DEMONS VS. SANE DRIVERS

Reckless Driving and Motorcycle Riding Dangerous Practice.

(By EDMUND CRINNION.)

Now that the board of supervisors have taken a decided stand against motor speeding, in which action the board has won the approval of practically every motor car owner, why not get to the bottom of the trouble and get the real offenders.

There is really nothing gained but money for the city or county treasury in maintaining speed traps unless much judgment is used on the part of the officers handling the traps. Careful and sane drivers have been the goat for speed maniacs just about long enough. Not only is the careful driver harassed on the highways by the speed demons but also he is invariably the one that gets nicked in the traps, owing to the lack of judgment exercised by the arresting officers.

The speed ordinances do not cover the situation at all and it is doubtful if any ordinance can be framed that will. For instance we have speed regulations that call a speed not to exceed ten miles per hour in certain places. Any one that would expect that regulation to be followed either has never operated a motor car or is just prejudiced against motor vehicles. Under certain traffic conditions many cars travel the length of, say Broadway street, at even a lesser speed on an average, but still exceed the ten-mile limit in the center of every block. Our eighteen-mile limit ordinance in the residence districts is fair enough, but even here judgment should be used in enforcing it. For here again a driver can travel about the city all day on an average of fifteen miles an hour and it is almost a safe bet that he would get caught in every speed trap that he passed, for the very simple reason that the traps are generally placed where conditions call and in most places demand more momentum in order to negotiate a grade or again where there is a down grade and in holding the car to the 18-mile limit it will of its own momentum accelerate speed of a few miles more per hour in spite of the driver, unless of course, he pays more attention to his speedometer than to the traffic on the street which would be more dangerous than the extra few miles of speed. It is easy enough for the officers to tell the difference between a speeder and a careful driver, however, and we hope that the campaign the officials intend to conduct will be different from the former affairs.

The real reason for the present agitation against speed is the numerous accidents due to motorcycles being operated at an extremely high speed. But because no effort has been made on the boulevard to restrain speed maniacs and as the result two motorcycle riders crashed together while going at a breakneck speed, which has been claimed was seventy miles an hour, that is no reason why motor car owners and drivers who can easily maintain an average gait of twenty-five miles an hour on the same highway with absolute safety to all other traffic and the car itself, should be compelled to travel at less than a twenty-mile average or be held up.

The automobile department of THE TRIBUNE has no sympathy whatever for speed demons and joy riders. A jail sentence is none too good for any driver that drives at a speed that endangers the lives of all other users of the same road and the occupants of his car or one that drives a car in a reckless manner at any time, but at the same time it should be understood that one can drive a car on Broadway at eight miles an hour in a reckless manner and endanger life to much greater extent than if he drove at a forty-mile gait on the county roads with no other vehicles in sight and a long clear stretch of roadway ahead.

As far as the action of the supervisors in regard to refusing sanction to the big Fourth of July road race, in many respects the writer heartily agrees with them. One human life is worth more than the race itself or its results could ever amount to, and it is almost a safe bet that more than one life will be snuffed out in this gruelling contest.

But even at that there is another and much more dangerous contest placarded to be held next Sunday at Emeryville, a motorcycle race on a mile dirt track. This means a real race between local riders with many amateurs in the contest and all on a dirt track that even caused the manager of Bob Burman much anxiety while that veteran hippodromed it with a motor car and provided well planned thrills for the spectators.

Pullman Car Names Will Be Reformed; "Highbrow" Gone

CHICAGO, June 24.—Use of mythological and historical names in designating sleeping and private cars is being discontinued. Statistics compiled by the Pullman company and made public today show that names of cities, states and towns are being substituted, especially by western railroads. One Pacific coast line already has discarded Indian names, pronounced with difficulty, for names of several cities in California and Colorado.

President Poincare arrived off Portsmouth early today. After passing in review a notable gathering of British war vessels, he landed at the dockyard, where he was met by the young Prince of Wales. The president and the Prince of Wales, after receiving an address of welcome from the civic authorities, departed on the royal train for London, accompanied by a brilliant staff of military and civil authorities.

King George was waiting at Victoria station to greet the president and escorted him to York House, which has been placed at his disposal during his stay. They passed through lavishly-decorated streets lined by the regiments of the brigade of guards. Their carriage was escorted by a regiment of Horse Guards.

AMERICAN FLAG WAVES AT BAPTISM OF JAPANESE BABY

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 24.—A year ago Roy T. Masuda, a native of Japan, and Miss Mena Gilbertson, a Minnesota girl, were married by Rev. G. L. Morrill. Yesterday their 2 months' old boy, George Washington Masuda, was consecrated, the Rev. Mr. Morrill officiating.

The service was said to have been unique. Rev. Morrill was formerly a Baptist minister and does not approve of sprinkling as a form of baptism and the baby was too young for immersion. The parents were anxious not only that the child should receive some form of baptism and they also were firm in their desire that the Rev. Mr. Morrill perform the ceremony.

Hence a compromise was agreed upon. The boy was consecrated, the minister using the Bible and an American flag in the ceremony, pledging the father and mother to teach the youngster patriotism and piety.

Morrill recently acquired considered publicity in an energetic defense of the Japanese people and a criticism of the California alien land bill. He is pastor of the People's church.

SERVIA YIELDS TO RUSSIAN REQUEST

Reported That Arbitration Will Be Accepted on Old Treaty Basis.

LONDON, June 24.—It is reported from Sofia that Servia has yielded to the exhortations of Russia and the powers to accept Russian arbitration on the basis of the ante bellum treaty. This has not been confirmed from Bulgaria, where the cabinet crisis, which arose through the ministers of war and justice refusing to consent to such a course, still continues. It is rumored that a new cabinet will be former by M. Protics, minister of the interior in the previous cabinet, who is strongly anti-Bulgarian.

GREECE'S STAND.

Greece is taking a determined stand by the side of Servia. In reply to Russia's request that she should intervene at Belgrade in favor of peace, Greece points out that she is not a party to the Serbo-Bulgarian treaty, which was arranged unknown to her and without regard to her interests.

The Greek foreign minister has issued a long statement explaining the attitude throughout and declare that the only possible solution is the referance of all disputed questions to arbitration. He strongly opposes the Bulgarian demand to settle by partition of the territories with each of the allies separately.

FARE REDUCED TO OUTLYING CITIES

Full details of the adjustment and reduction of railroad rates to Oakland as ordered by the State Railroad Commission are contained in the set of figures issued on the matter, and containing new and old rates and the decrease as ordered.

Besides the reduction to Oakland from outlying cities, a number of radical changes in cities farther away are also made. Oakland will be benefited greatly by the changes in rates, as it will reduce fares to this city from 10 to 20 cents in practically every case.

The reductions were ordered on the principle that the same fare to Oakland as to San Francisco is unfair. An adjustment has now been reached by which the Southern Pacific will, on August 1, issue a supplementary tariff reducing the Oakland rates from points in the Sacramento valley. It is the intention of the commission to ask for a further adjustment so that the rates from the San Joaquin valley, as well, will be put upon a lower basis.

Schlitz Brown Bottle Is Making History

Two years ago, Schlitz adopted the Brown Bottle.

Scientists, world famous, had rendered opinions that beer exposed to light cannot remain pure.

One year ago, Schlitz corroborated its claims by reprinting such parts of these opinions as were pertinent.

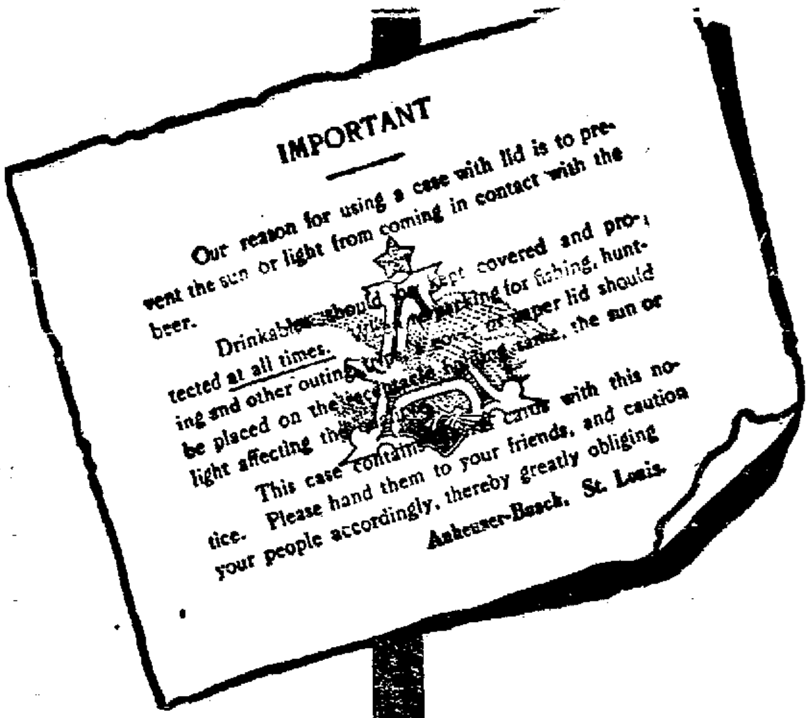
Today, the last link in this long chain of incontrovertible evidence is complete.

We reproduce herewith in miniature the printed matter on covers or caution cards taken from cases of beer sold by brewers using the light bottle.

Read them.

They are self-explanatory. They are eloquent.

These competitors admit the weakness of their own product when exposed to light, by warning the public to "Keep the cover on."



IMPORTANT

Our reason for using a case with lid is to prevent the sun or light from coming in contact with the beer.

Drinkables should be kept covered and protected at all times. When packing for fishing, hunting and other outing trips, a cover or paper lid should be placed on the receptacle holding same, the sun or light affecting the contents.

This case contains cards with this notice. Please hand them to your friends, and caution your people accordingly, thereby greatly obliging

NOTICE TO CUSTOMERS

Bottles and Packages before leaving our plant are thoroughly inspected and complaints for defects will be considered only when nature of complaint is fully stated and this slip attached thereto.

REMEMBER. Never expose beer in bottles to the light. Light affects the beer quickly and makes it unfit for use.

REMEMBER. Cases with bottles with natural wood corks must be laid sideways so that the beer is in constant contact with the cork. This prevents the cork from drying out and thus avoids leakage.

President and Wife Married 28 Years

WASHINGTON, June 24.—This is the twenty-eighth anniversary of the wedding day of President and Mrs. Wilson. No formal celebration marked the event, although a number of telegrams of congratulation began to arrive early at the White House. The observance of the day was purely a family affair.

Dr. Axson officiated at the ceremony and was assisted by the Rev. J. R. Wilson, father of the present President.

Keep Skin Clear and Hair Beautiful

(From Mae's Beauty Magazine).

Keep the skin clear, velvety and attractive by daily applying a lotion prepared by stirring two teaspoonfuls of glycerine into one-half pint of witch hazel (or hot water) then adding four ounces of spurmax. This lotion used instead of face powders is invisible, tones the skin to a beautiful, natural color while curing surface blemishes and oily, shiny appearance of the face, so often due to wind and sun.

Color and lustre can be restored to hair by frequent use of this simple home-made shampoo which will also stimulate hair growth. Dissolve a teaspoonful of canthrox in a cup of hot water. This makes enough pleasing [illegible] oil by its delightful lather and when thoroughly rinsed from the hair it carries away all impurities, leaving a soft, healthy scalp.

BROKEN PROMISE IS VALUED AT $225,000

Former Companion of Young Hoe Declares Heart is Shattered.

NEW YORK, June 24.—Arthur L. Hoe, one of the millionaire heirs to the $34,000,000 estate of the late printing press builder, had two suits for [illegible] and breach of contract filed against him yesterday in the supreme court by Miss Mae A. Sullivan of this city.

According to the complaint, Hoe established the young woman first at the Hotel Norwood, later at the Hotel Marseilles, and still later at Nos. 416 and 420 Riverside drive, respectively.

Miss Sullivan charges that in December, 1910, Hoe promised to marry her one year later only to confess at the last moment that he was a married man and had a family.

Miss Sullivan sues for $150,000 for breach of promise and asks for $75,000 in a second suit.

Ban on Gum

CHICAGO, June 24.—Co-eds at the University of Chicago yesterday were inclined to pout at a new order which, in effect, places the ban on chewing gum.

They don't want the gum so much, but many of them regard the order as an undue infringement of personal rights.

There was a rumor that several "blind pigs," where the tempting product may be obtained, were already in operation in co-ed dormitories.

Give Up Cuticle

LOS ANGELES, June 24.—Twenty-one persons, eight of them women, responded yesterday to the plea of Mrs. Charles Cox of Pasadena for 50 volunteers to contribute two square inches of skin each to save the life of her husband.

Cox was terribly injured while rescuing his baby from a fire.

Thirty-eight inches of skin were cut from the arms of the volunteers and grafted to the legs of Cox.

Among the women volunteers was Mrs. Harry Regan of Oak Knoll, who is one of the social leaders of Pasadena and prominent in club and church circles and very wealthy.

Kill Rattlers

CHICO, June 24.—Mrs. Mary Rodley, Mrs. M. Furniss and Mrs. Frank Waterland of this city returned yesterday from a 10-day vacation and brought with them seven rattlesnake skins and two dozen rattles, all taken during their trip. One of the rattlers was a monster with eight rattles and he gave the women a lively fight. Three others were caught in a den. They also bagged some big game and gave the men folk in the mountains lessons on fishing.

Fortune to Actress

LONDON, June 24.—Edmond Dollfus, a retired Parisian stockbroker, who died recently, had a big personal estate in Great Britain. He bequeathed $240,000 and a villa at Monte Carlo to Rachel Boyer, an actress at the Comedie Francaise.

BLUE-SKY LAW IS MADE INOPERATIVE

Kansas State Officials Are Restrained From Enforcing Measure.

TOPEKA, Kan., June 24.—For the first time since its enactment the celebrated Kansas "blue sky" law, taken as a model for nearly all similar legislation in other states, is inoperative. Judge A. W. Dana of the District Court granted a temporary restraining order late yesterday restraining the state officials from enforcing it.

A suit in which the court is asked to make the injunction permanent was filed yesterday by D. A. Mounday, general manager of the American Sugar Refining Company, with headquarters here. He alleges the law deprives him of all rights guaranteed him under the constitution of the state and nation. The petition states that the law has caused a general unrest among business men and that it has injured his business.

Attorney General Dawson, in a statement last night declared the suit would result in a benefit to the officers responsible for its enforcement, as it would give them judicial interpretations of the statute.

The Kansas blue sky law, intended to safeguard investors in stocks and bonds and other securities, was passed two years ago.

GERMAN BID LOWER DESPITE CUSTOM DUTY

WASHINGTON, June 24.—That a German concern should be able to pay the custom duties on a great boring machine for the New York navy yard, and yet underbid the American toolmakers, came as a surprise to navy department officials who are actively engaged in enlarging the capacity of the New York yard. Experts however, have decided that the German design for this tool, which weighs more than 600,000 pounds, is not so good as that submitted by some of the American toolmakers, one of whom, consequently, will receive the award.

BRIDE OF 6 MONTHS SUES FOR DIVORCE

RICHMOND, June 24.—Charging cruelty, Edith Creason Kloehn, a bride of six months, has filed suit for divorce in [illegible] E. Kloehn. Kloehn is a prominent Santa Fe fireman, while his wife, who now seeks single blessedness, is prominent socially. The suit for divorce has created a sensation here among the friends of the couple.

CHANGE OF DIET

By LILLIAN RUSSELL

(Copyrighted, 1913, by Lillian Russell.)

AN absolute change of diet is necessary to health and the nervous system. We are so enlightened today on the subject of health that illness will soon be considered a disgrace. You but have to obey the voice of your own wisdom to be healthy and beautiful. You know that jam and marmalade are injurious to the stomach if eaten at breakfast. You know that water with ice in it will chill the stomach and cause indigestion. You know that too much meat is injurious to health, and hot bread ferments in the stomach. You know that strawberries and tomatoes make uric acid. And you know the virtues of carrots, spinach and lettuce. So knowing all of these important dangers and aids to health, you have but to change your diet occasionally to bring about a change of your feelings.

If you have been eating a great deal of meat and heavy foods, change for a month to a fish and vegetable diet, or a milk and cheese diet. Or if you have been living upon vegetables and nuts, change to a meat diet. It is the absolute change that brings about a beneficial result. It is just as enervating to eat the same kind of food all the time, month in and month out, as it is to see the the same things or wear the same clothes continually. The mind becomes tired and with the fatigued mind comes the fatigued body. Nothing affects a change of outlook upon the world so quickly as a complete change of foods. That is the reason people feel benefited by trips away from home. And we all know how much more we enjoy meals at other people's tables than we do at home. The change can be effected at home just as well. Great epicures change their cooks every three months, just to get a different style of food. In Europe families change cooks occasionally just for a month or so, so well do they know the value of absolute change.

Americans give too little thought to diet; they eat anything and everything without consideration. If left to himself a man will order steak every day of his life. And most women will eat profusely of candy between meals. Regularity of eating is necessary to health, for the machinery of the digestive organs must not be overworked. They will become tired and slow if not allowed sufficient rest. Remember, if you do not respect your palate, at least respect the machinery that runs the body.

Answers to Queries

DISTRESSED: There is nothing I can recommend you to change the shape of your nose, but if fat is what makes the "hump" the following instructions will not only help that but will reduce your entire face.

Take two ounces of English camomile flowers, dried, two ounces of dried poppies; crush the poppies, seeds and all, and put these in a deep vessel with an opening large enough at the top to put your face in (the enameled cooking pot is the kind I use.) Pour over the dried flowers about three quarts of water and let it boil hard for ten minutes. Then take it off the stove and put it on the table low enough to lean over when sitting, so as to get the full benefit of the steam which comes from the herbs. Pull the towel around the vessel so that no steam may escape. You should keep over the steam about 15 minutes.

This can be done twice a day—morning and evening. The same herbs will do for four treatments if the treatments follow each other ten hours apart. For each of the three remaining treatments of the four add to the herbs a quart of water and boil ten minutes before using.

After the steaming process use no cold water on your face; dry it with an old piece of linen, patting it dry instead of rubbing. Do not put anything on your face for an hour. When the face has cooled and the blood has receded (which comes to the surface during the steaming process) you will observe a change for the better at once. You may then put on a perfectly pure cold cream, and after wiping it off carefully you may apply your powder (if you use any.) A face may be reduced to almost any size by this treatment, and it is absolutely harmless; in fact, the process beautifies the skin. It is an astringent and closes large pores also.

MRS. E.: I am sorry, but I cannot recommend a face powder to you. I would advise you to get a good grade of pure rice powder, for the cheap powders are nothing but chalk and will ruin the complexion. The face should be thoroughly cleansed before retiring—first with a good cleansing cream and then with plenty of soap and water. Any pure white soap is usually satisfactory.

RAYMOND: Blackheads usually come from indigestion and clogging of the pores of the skin. It is well to go on a diet for a few days, leaving off all greasy foods, pastries, and sweets. Eat plenty of fruit and vegetables. You must keep the face thoroughly cleansed. The green soap treatment is excellent for removing blackheads, and rarely, if ever, fails. I shall be happy to send you the green soap treatment for removing blackheads and formula for a cleansing cream if you will send me a stamped, addressed envelope.

S. B.: I shall be happy to send you the formula for bath bags if you will send me a stamped, addressed envelope.

ANXIOUS: Open pores are the result of neglect. By not thoroughly cleansing the face each night the pores become clogged. The first thing to do is to keep the face clean. Each night before retiring bathe with warm water and plenty of pure soap. Then apply a good astringent lotion. I shall be glad to send you a formula for an astringent lotion which will remedy enlarged pores if you will send me a stamped, addressed envelope.

C. B.: If you will send me a stamped, addressed envelope I shall be happy to send you my treatment for pimples, blackheads, and open pores. I shall also send you a formula for a face bleach.

ANCIENT DEBT BROUGHT UP IN FRENCH COURTS

PARIS, June 24.—The referee in the case of the claim of Alexandre Berard against the Duke of Marlborough for 60,000 francs ($12,000) has granted M. Berard permission to bring suit against the duke before the courts. According to Berard's attorneys, the $12,000 does not constitute a debt owed by the duke himself, but represents the sum of £416 10s 5d, with simple interest, lent by an ancestor of Berard to George, Duke of Marlborough, about a hundred years ago.

The attorneys urge that the court cannot raise the question of proscription and they trust in the honor of the duke not to repudiate the debts of his ancestors.

PANCHO VILLA AND MEN MARCH ON U. S. BORDER

NOBLES UNDER FIRE IN COURT

Sackvilles Accused of Dominating Mind of Sir John M. Scott.

London Society Crowds Into Hearing of Suit Involving Millions.

LONDON, June 24.—London society crowded the Probate Court today at the beginning of the suit over the will of the late Sir John Murray Scott.

Sir John left nearly $5,000,000 to Lady Sackville of Knole Park, Kent, wife of Baron Sackville, a relative of a former British minister to Washington. Malcolm Scott, a brother of Sir John, opposes probate of the will on the ground that Baron and Lady Sackville used undue influence in order to secure the bulk of the estate.

He also claims that a codocil, for which he has offered $50,000 reward, was executed after the drawing of the will for which the Sackvilles seek probate.

By order of the court some time ago an envelope left by Sir John Murray Scott addressed to Lady Sackville was opened, but it has not been stated whether it disclosed the missing codicil.

CHARGES DOMINATION.

At the opening of the case for Malcolm Scott today, his counsel outlined the general nature of his case. "The Sackvilles," he said, "spent more than 10 years in obtaining complete ascendency and domination over Sir John Scott. The nature of that influence was such that, although they were not relatives, they induced him to finance them for enormous sums during his lifetime and to leave to them the greater part of his estate of $5,000,000."

Sir John died on January 17, 1912. His estate was bequeathed to him by Lady Wallace, who left him about $5,000,000 in money and some large properties in France.

Wilson to Withdraw Name of Nicholson

WASHINGTON, June 24.—President Wilson will withdraw his nomination of Meredith Nicholson, the Indiana novelist, to be minister to Portugal. When objections were raised to the nomination on the ground that "Nicholson was not a good Democrat," the novelist urged the President to withdraw his name if it embarrassed him politically, but the President declined to do so. Nicholson has insisted on the ground that he cannot take his family abroad.

Diplomatic appointments went begging yesterday when Nicholson declined the post, and within a short space the White House received the declination of James D. Phelan, former mayor of San Francisco, to accept the position of ambassador to Austria-Hungary. The two declinations were a facer for the administration, which is experiencing some difficulties in filling foreign posts.

FIRST STEP IN BOND BATTLE PLANNED

Committee Will Be Named Tomorrow to Map Out Coming Campaign.

Improvement Club Offers to Take Up $40,000 of Present Paper.

Resolutions appointing Commissioners Harry S. Anderson, John Forrest and William J. Baccus a committee to obtain estimates as to the money needed for the completion of the schools, city hall and auditorium, and to recommend a bond issue and the rate of interest for the proposed issue, will be introduced into the city council tomorrow morning as the first step toward calling the proposed bond election.

As a partial solution to the difficulties in which the city finds itself, the Vernon Rockridge Improvement Club presented an offer this morning to subscribe $40,000 for the 4½ per cent bond which the city has been unable to sell, provided the money subscribed can be used for the completion of the Shafter avenue school, which is in the improvement club district. The offer was presented by Harold Everhart, former city councilman.

Assistant City Attorney C. A. Beardsley declared that it would not be possible to give the assurance that the money, once paid into the bond fund of the city treasury, must be paid on demand to any contractor holding a warrant against the school building fund. It would be impossible to promise that the $40,000 would be paid on the Shafter avenue school, as any contractor might present his warrant and mandamus the treasurer to pay him if there was money in the treasury.

ARRANGEMENT POSSIBLE.

It was suggested that it would be possible for an arrangement to be made between the improvement club and the contractor, by which the contractor could receive the bonds at par in payment of his warrant, and then sell the bonds to the improvement club for the $40,000. The Shafter avenue school is being constructed by O. B. Ackermann and Sons. It is understood that this concern has not been approached as yet as to whether the proposition would be acceptable.

The matter will be taken up by Everhart with the contractors and the city attorney. This method can be pursued only while the bonds are being disposed of over the counter, as at present, and it is anticipated that the order authorizing such sale will be cancelled as soon as the amount to be called for in the new bond election has been determined that there may be no duplication.

WASHINGTON, June 24.—Attired in a white linen suit and with the eyes of a great crowd on him, President Wilson stood on the porch of the White House at 9:30 a. m. today and placed a message of felicitation to Mayor Carter Harrison of Chicago in the haversack of Fred Reid, the first of a string of boy scout relay runners who are to bear it to Chicago.

Young Reed, in a sleeveless shirt and running costume, stepped up to the front door and saluted the President. Placing the carefully rolled message in the pouch which Reed extended the President with a wave of his hand started a race.

Newspaper Burned; Firebug Is Suspected

BAKERSFIELD, June 24.—Following the destruction by fire early today of the plant of the Bakersfield Californian, an evening newspaper, the police began an investigacion of several recent conflagrations in this locality, incendiarism having been suspected.

Fires in the neighborhood of Bakersfield within the past four days have damaged property to the extent of about $250,000. A settlement known as Boust City was completely wiped out by fire early yesterday morning.

Mother of Attorney-General Is Injured

HOPKINSVILLE, Ky., June 24.—Mrs. Ellen McReynolds, mother of Attorney-General James C. McReynolds, fell and fractured her hip as she was about to board a train here yesterday. Mrs. McReynolds, who is 76 years old, was en route to her home at Elkton, Ky., after a visit here when the accident occurred.

LAWYER FAILS TO LOCATE CUYLER

Divorce Action Hampered When Husband Can Not Be Found.

Society Woman Visits Mother While Skeleton of Family Wiggles.

ALAMEDA, June 24. — Mrs. Grace Barton Cuyler, who is suing her husband, [illegible] of San Francisco, is temporarily with her mother, Mrs. John Barton, at the old family home at Broadway and Central avenue, this city. Mrs. Cuyler is a resident of San Francisco, making her home at the Fairmont, where her mother also spends the winters since her return from Paris, where mother and daughter made their home for some ten years.

The divorce suit was filed in April and ever since that time Cuyler is believed to have made a systematic attempt to avoid being served with a summons. The efforts to serve notice of the suit on Cuyler furnish not the least interesting chapter of the case, for Attorney Frank H. Powers of Weller, Powers & Ehrman, a San Francisco legal firm, has just returned from an ineffectual chase through Southern California and Arizona and into war-ridden Mexico, trailing Cuyler from Calexico to different points, but never overtaking him. With the aid of an Indian to row him across the turbulent Colorado, and hastily crossing the desert, Cuyler kept out of California and reached Yuma, from where he is supposed to have taken train for Atlanta, or some other point in Georgia. He will now be served with notice of the divorce action through a publication of the summons.

NEVER GIVEN MONEY.

Money is believed to be the chief reason for Cuyler's determination to avoid being served with summons and of agreeing to a divorce action. He is reported to have said that he would fight the case to the end as he knew his wife had money and he wanted some of it. Cuyler is a [illegible] broker, though she has declared this morning that she had never received a cent from him for maintenance, despite the fact that he had put through several large deals. He went abroad to establish a cotton agency in Paris, but decided against the French capital and moved to London and then back to New York. Mrs. Cuyler says that Cuyler spent much of his time in recent years in travelling back and forth across the Atlantic. She says that he not only failed to pay for the education of his children but also failed to pay for their food or clothing or for any of the living expenses of herself. Cuyler's mother, Mrs. Smith, is a wealthy invalid woman, owning a 4000-acre plantation in Georgia. Mrs. Cuyler said that she desired secrecy in the divorce case largely because of Cuyler's mother, whom she declares is a most estimable and lovable woman. Cuyler was the family name of Mrs Smith before her marriage. The son objected to the name of Smith and took his mother's family name of Cuyler while still a resident of Georgia.

JUMPED FROM TRAIN.

An interesting and exciting episode in Cuyler's life was an accident which happened to Cuyler in North Carolina, while enroute to see his mother. He was injured jumping from a train. It was reported that he jumped to avoid a detective whom he believed was pursuing him following trouble with the Canadian Cotton company for which he was a broker. Cuyler had $22,000 of Rock Island bonds in his pocket when he was picked up in an injured condition and taken to a hospital but Mrs. Cuyler says she could not get a cent of the bond money for her support.

Ruined Broker Found Dead in River Clyde

GLASGOW, Scotland, June 24.—The body of Peter Donaldson, a partner in the iron brokerage firm of James Watson & Company, which suspended payment this month, was found in the river at Kilcreggan, a watering place on the Clyde, with a dumbell tied around his neck and another attached to one of the legs.

Donaldson left his house yesterday morning. Relatives, becoming axious as to his whereabouts, searched the hills and woods in the vicinity without finding him. They then started dragging the river and the body was brought to the surface. Ae meeting of the creditors of the firm was scheduled for today in Glasgow.

'Hunger Strike' Is Prison Epidemic

LONDON, June 24.—Edwin Clayton, the chemist who was sentenced to twenty-two months' imprisonment on June 17 for conspiracy in conjunction with the militant suffragette leaders, was released from jail today in a very weak condition, as the result of a "hunger strike."

It appears from statements made by released prisoners that many convicts who are not suffragettes have followed the example of the suffragettes. Three men in one of the prisons have for some weeks declined to eat and are being forcibly fed.

JUAREZ IN FEAR OF ATTACK

Border Town Stands Ready to Repel Advance of Many Revolutionists

Federal Troops Bottled Up by Wrecking of Mexican Railroad

EL PASO, Texas, June 24.—Pancho Villa and his band of Mexican rebels are en route from Casas Grandes, 150 miles south of here, to attack Juarez, according to a messenger of the Pearson lumber interests who has just arrived here. The messenger left Casas Grandes Saturday, following its capture by Villa and his rebel band, and says Villa has 1100 men, all well mounted and equipped.

Villa has sent word to American Consul T. D. Edwards in Juarez that he will attack the border city this week. The Juarez defenders under Colonel Castro began mounting cannon today on vantage points about the city.

TOTAL FORCE IS 2100.

The messenger says Villa told him he had men at Palomas, west of Juarez and at Villa Ahumada, southeast of Juarez, ready to join him in the march against the border town, bringing his total force up to the 2100 men. It is estimated that he should arrive within attacking distance of the town by Wednesday night.

Neills Larsen, a Mormon contractor, arrived last night from the vicinity of Casas Grandes and reports that Lino Ponce, a federal officer, estimated the number killed by the Villa band at Casas Grandes at more than 100, including Roque Gomez, one of the commanders of the federal irregulars.

FEDERALS BOTTLED UP.

DOUGLAS, Ariz., June 24. — From Hermosillo, Governor Pesquiera of Sonora telegraphed today an angry denial of reports emanating from Mexico City and Nogales that General Pedro Ojeda had repeated his Agua Prieta exploit and defeated a superior force of state troops in the battles of Artiz and Santa Rosa.

Ojeda was still bottled up at Santa Rosa near Ortiz, the governor asserted in his official message to the Constitutional junta here. The federal troop trains were stalled by long stretches of wrecked roadway, it was declared and the rebels, beating back the desperate efforts made by the federals to break through the cordon about them, were pressing on to certain victory.

The battle began last Thursday at Ortiz and was continued yesterday and today around Santa Rosa.

DURANGO IS CAPTURED.

MEXICO CITY, June 24. — The report of the capture of Durango by the rebels has been confirmed. The garrison at Durango was small and the city was in a deplorable condition from the long siege. Only a few commodities were available and these were extremely high priced.

Fearing an attack, the authorities at Aguas Calientes have placed the city practically under martial law. Posters have been fixed on the street corners, stating the hours citizens must be off the streets, and announcing that otherwise they will be shot if without the countersign. Minute instructions are given the public as to what to do in case of attack. No details of the capture have been received.

MEXICAN R. R. MEN QUIT.

MEXICO CITY, June 24. — E. N. Brown and A. Clark, president and general manager respectively of the Mexican National Railway system, have resigned. Their successors have not been announced. It is understood that the motive for the resignation lay in the financial difficulties which the system has been forced to face, as well as difficulties of operating in a rebel infested country, but it is also believed that the tendency of the government commissions to interfere in the operation of the railways played a part in determining this action. It is reported that a majority of the Americans in the service will follow their chiefs.

The war department announces that it will devote all its energies to opening the National railroad, but that it probably will be ten days before repairs to Saltillo are made.

WILL HAVE NEW MEN.

MEXICO CITY, June 24. — The directors of the National Railways will meet today to select the successor of E. N. Brown as president. It is said that efforts are being made to induce C. R. Hudson, the vice-president, to accept the presidency.

A contributory cause for the resignation of Messrs Brown and Clark was too insistent suggestions on the part of the government that the road reinstate any employes who were laid off on account of the curtailed service.

THOUGHTS OF TRIBUNE DAY AT IDORA DEATH TO GROUCH

THERE'LL BE NO NEED OF CLIMBING FENCES ON JULY 1

WILLIE woke up today with a real bad grouch on.

A genuine, 24 carat, nickel-plated old grouch.

His big front tooth didn't gleam in the sunlight.

His sweet, manly smile didn't illumine his face.

His curling hair wasn't parted with care, as usual.

Willie looked just as though he had been put out at third.

And looking thus, he came into THE TRIBUNE for his picture.

Now, TRIBUNE DAY at IDORA must see no grouchy face.

So it looked like there'd be nothing doing today.

So Mr. Ket, the artist, told Willie to look pleasant.

And WILLIE, instead of brightening up, started for the door.

Just then Mr. Ket snapped a big camera at him.

He was horrified, though, when he saw what he had taken.

For WILLIE—well, Willie had a big rip in his trousers.

And there was no curtain in front of it, either.

When WILLIE saw that picture his big grin came back,

And he posed for his picture like a little man.

Then he explained just how it all happened.

Last night he and Timmy Flynn played around a fence.

Timmy stood at the door taking in THE TRIBUNE passes.

When WILLIE came along Timmy wouldn't let him in.

Said he'd have to buy a ticket for five dollars.

"Go on," says WILLIE, "that's a TRIBUNE pass.

There are five tickets on this for the side shows.

And you can bet I'm going to take them all in.

Just book me for the SOCIAL WHIRL, the TOBOGGAN,

The MERRY-GO-ROUND, the SCENIC RAILWAY

And the MOVING PICTURES,

And keep an eye on my auto while I'm inside."

"Hold on," says Tim, "that pass isn't good today.

This isn't July 1, TRIBUNE DAY; that's next week.

Don't block the line; move on; dust; beat it!"

And Willie made believe he was "dusting" or "beating it."

But he went into the next yard and climbed the fence.

Thought Timmie wouldn't see him and he'd sneak in.

But there was a long, wicked nail in that fence;

It caught Willie right in the seat of his pants;

Then there was a loud noise of something ripping,

And then, of course, the whole show was busted up.

And that's why Willie had a grouch on this morning.

But of course there'll be no climbing of fences July 1.

On TRIBUNE DAY no boy will have to sneak in.

The gate of IDORA PARK will be wide open for him,

And it will be open for Willie's little sister, too,

And for his uncle, his cousins and his aunt,

And the friends he has in all the counties round about;

And THE TRIBUNE is going to be at the door that day,

And the passes are going to be good for five side shows,

And you can bet nobody will have to climb fences to sneak in!

No, sir, there'll not be any torn breeches on July first.

NEW COMEDIAN IS HIT AT LIBERTY

Gordon Davis Appears in "Charle's Aunt;" Pomander Walk Produced.

A new comedian won his way into the hearts of the critical Monday night audience at Ye Liberty Playhouse when Gordon Davis made his first appearance with the Bishp ploayers in "Charley's Aunt," last night.

Davis demonstrated that he is a versatile comedian and a clever actor. He played the part of the Aunt from Brazil in so clever a fashion that even those who were most familiar with the role found new beauties to enjoy and new laughs.

Davis was ably supported by the remainder of the cast, which included James [illegible] Lois Bolton, Jane Urban, Miss Laura Adams, Robert Lawler, Robert B. McKenzie, Brady Kline and Pauline Hillenbrand.

The main attraction of the evening, however, was the first presentation by a stock company of the great success, "Pomander Walk." Franklyn Underwood and Miss Frances Slosson had the leading roles in that quaint story of old English life, which has been such a success.

CAST IS EXCELLENT.

When the author penned this wonder[illegible] that would have fitted Henry Shumer better than that of Jerome Brooke Hos[illegible] Shumer is always a good comedian. This week he is wonderful in everything that he does. George Webster can take a "bit" and make it stand out in the entire play, but he can work "dramatical magic" with a great part, and he does it this week as Admiral Sir Peter. Then there is Frances Slosson, who was never more dainty or lovable than she is as Majorlane Lachesnails, and one cannot help but wonder why only Lieutenant John Sayles fell in love with her.

Mrs. Mina Gleason plays a difficult role as she plays everything——excellently, and Maribel Seymour upholds her laurels as Miss Ruth Pennymint. The Eyesore was ably portrayed by Gene Hermeda. "Pomander Walk" is a play of atmosphere, and the atmosphere is found at Ye Liberty.

In the cast are found such excellent actors as Jack Pollard, who plays a doddering old doctor in wonderful style; Max Waizman, Claude Archer, Miss Bertha Creighton, Miss Jean Devereaux, Miss Edith Serale, Miss Eleanor Blevins, and Miss Marta Golden. Miss Golden, by the way, is doing a splendid piece of work this week.

DEAN WITTER.

BERKELEY, June 24. — Europe is the Mecca for an unusually large number of Berkeleyans who are spending their vacations this year out of the State. Several local families are away on itineraries that will last into the fall and winter, while others are paying briefer respects to the English and continental points of interest, and will return this summer. COMMITTEE FALLS INTO DESUETUDE

Alameda City Council Finds Judiciary Body Taskless Five Years.

ALAMEDA, June 24. — Councilmen E. B. Bullock and Wm. Hammond Jr., were startled yesterday when they received a notification from Councilman F. J. Probst, [illegible] committee of the city council, announcing a meeting of the committee. The meeting was held last night and on inquiry Probst stated that he had called the meeting to wind up the old business of the committee.

Probst announced that he knew of no business, but thought there should be [illegible] that in the last six years there had been but one matter referred to the committee, something about a Chinese lottery, which further investigation showed should have been referred to the city attorney. There was no business to finish up and the meeting adjourned.

Councilman Bullock in speaking of the committee today said that there is no reason for its existence and that a movement to have it disbanded will be put on foot in the council.

AN EXPEDIENT.

[illegible] thought and expedient of the first city council under the new charter. It was proposed to have each councilman a chairman of one committee, and in passing around the chairmanships there was one short. In order to provide a chairmanship for everybody the idea of a judiciary committee was hit upon and established.

It was then decided to refer the Chinese lottery question to the committee. This was done and then the business and the committee were both forgotten until the inauguration of the present administration, when the committee for once came in handy and three members of the old administration were relegated to oblivion within its cobwebbed walls.

The meeting yesterday evening was the first in over five years, and will probably be the last ever held.

MODERN WOODMEN OF ALAMEDA PLAN SHOW

ALAMEDA, June 24. — Alameda theater has been chartered by the local lodge of Modern Woodmen for the "professional" night of the organization, which will be held on the evening of July 2. Professional vaudeville, supplied from the best booking sources will be the chief feature of the entertainment.

One or two local acts that have been thoroughly tried out and found worthy [illegible] added to the program.

At the last meeting of the lodge, plans for the entertainment were discussed and practically perfected. The vaudeville show will be a long and specially selected program, and many inquiries for tickets are now being received.

BYRNE IS FATHER.

ALAMEDA, June 24. — Joseph Byrne, janitor of the city hall, is today the proud and happy father of a new baby girl. The little one arrived in the Byrne residence early this morning. Byrne's [illegible] responsible for many inquiries, and at last the fact became known.

RELEASED ONLY TO BE RETAKEN

George W. Courtney, Freed On One Charge, Again Arrested.

Within a few minutes after George W. Courtney, who has been before the local courts for several months on four cases of embezzlement, had been released by the order of the court and the cases dismissed, he was rearrested by Inspectors St. Clair Hodgkins and Thomas Wood on advices from Portland, Or. Courtney is to be held here until an officer arrives from Portland with extradition papers for [illegible]

The Portland charge is on a felony warrant of larceny by bailee. Constable Weinberger asked for the arrest of Courtney in a telegram sent to Oakland.

Courtney was arrested here some months ago on charges of having withheld $300 apiece from four drivers for a laundry concern. He was allowed time on the hearing of the cases that he might reimburse the men. He has been working to do this and the cases were dismissed today when it was explained in court that the money had been returned.

WHEN Our Pitchers Pitch, Our Batters Don't Bat ✿ Ables Tops Oak Stickers With Percentage of .400 ✿ McCredie's Mystery Is Thielman ✿ Champs Open Today Against Ducks

Humboldt Club Has Forty Rounds For the Fans This Evening

COY AND LEARD CREDITED WITH 102 OAKLAND RUNS

If Ables Could Only Pitch as Well as He Can Bat! 2 Out of 5!

By BILLY FITZ.

BERT COY and William Walter Leard have each scored fifty-one runs for the Oaks, are tied for third place amongst the run-getters and the game little Oakland second baseman is commencing to gain on the base-stealers. He is now fourth on the list with a total of thirty-six, as against Jimmy Johnston's fifty-three, Shinn's forty-one and Maggart's thirty-eight.

[illegible] game with Portland in the ninth inning. Wee Willie McCorry managed to last eight stormy innings, despite his wildness. The feature of the afternoon was the appearance of the "Mysterious Mr. Todd" on the mound for Portland. "Todd" certainly got away with his debut in sensational style. He was taken out to allow Doane to pinch for him.

Howard identified Todd as Thielman, who played with Jersey City in the East- [illegible] lately been practicing dentistry. He is said to be out here on a vacation and McCredie induced him to try-out. Three scratch singles were all the damage off Todd and he fanned the side in the second inning.

McCredie and Happy Hogan evidently believe themselves possessed of qualifications which other managers lack. They see latent possibilities in almost every player on whom opposing magnates ask waivers. No sooner did Tonneman draw his release yesterday than McCredie waived him to the Portland bread-line. There is no denying the fact that Claude Berry has been a different ball player this year as compared to his work with the Seals last season. Perhaps Tonneman may undergo a similar metamorphosis. Hogan imported Tonneman originally, but found him too slow even for the crippled catching department of the Tigers.

Elmer Zacher and Jack Killilay have a good word to say for Big Bill Guthrie, the new umpire, who will soon make his appearance before local fans. Guthrie is said to be a man who will not tolerate any crabbing, and who has a cool, clear head on his shoulders.

Jack Killilay, Oak boxman has a fund of amusing diamond yarns and he takes keen delight in spinning them. One of his best deals with a certain game played last winter in San Diego between a team for which he was pitching, and a team of [illegible]

The darkeys were all mighty clever ball players and a few of them were natural comedians. They had been crabbing all through the game at the decisions of "dis here empire," but the limit came in the ninth inning. The score was tied when Killilay's teammates came at bat. With two and two on the batter, the umpire called another ball that looked close and the dusky pitcher flung down his glove and refused to pitch any more.

The umpire waited a moment and then called four balls on the batter and waved him to first. Still the colored players remained stationary on the diamond, and the umpire called another man up to the plate and walked him. The pitcher was plainly disconcerted but he remained sullenly in the box without any movement to return to his duties. For the [illegible] time, the umpire called up a man and walked him to first on four balls. With the bases full the umpire called up a fourth batter and waved him to first, forcing in the winning run.

The dusky flinger from Africa stalked to the grandstand and appealed to the crowd as follows:

"That dog-gone empire! Dat man who ought to be down at Tia Juana! If dey had eleven bases, he'd a called out all the substitutes, dat's what he would!"

Two innings previous, the same black wonder glanced up at the scoreboard and saw nothing but a string of ciphers opposite his team's name.

"Hey," he yelled. "Caint you all get some figures on that there board. Nought [illegible]"

One of the bright features of the week has been the display of stickwork by [illegible] Coy, who has jumped [illegible] four points above Jack Ness. Officially the leading batter of the Oakland club is Harry Ables, who, by virtue of two hits in five trips to the plate has the thrilling percentage of .400. Only Cap Dillon and Klawitter are ahead of him.

Maggart once more steps into the lead in the batting averages of the Pacific Coast League. Maggart is batting .324 and leads Bill Lindsay of Portland by two points.

Howard Mundorff of the Seals is third with .312, and is the only Seal batter who is over the .300 mark. Jimmy Johnston is holding his own at .292, and Zimmerman has dropped to the .291 mark. Charles, who hit at a one-in-three clip for his first two weeks with the team, took a big drop, his average being now .275.

Jimmy Shinn has passed Lewis and is now the leading Sacramento batter, being fourth in the league list. Lewis comes fifth, making the squad of .300 hitters number five in all.

Venice is still weak in hitting, Bayless being Hogan's best batsman, with an average of .291.

Jimmy Johnson is easily the leading run getter and base stealer. He has scored 55 times and has purloined 53 bases. Shin with 41 and Maggart with 38 are next to Johnston in base stealing.

During the week the Seals will be strengthened by the addition of "Nig" Clarke, a catcher with big league experience, and Jerry Downs, an infielder. These players have just been purchased from the Indianapolis club of the American Association.

Last season Clarke was with the Indianapolis club. He played in 82 games and batted .268. His fielding average was .986. Downs spent the season with the Brooklyn and Chicago clubs of the National League. He batted in nine games for Brooklyn and 43 for Chicago, his average being .240. In fielding he had a mark of .870, second base being his position.

For a chap who is rated as a veteran and a man who does his best work in the hot months, "Bill" Malarkey seems to have been [illegible] work this season. Mitze was forced to call on Malarkey for the life saving stunt many times when Bill was due to be charged with either the loss or the victory. With the team still in a batting slump, Malarkey has done well to carve out 11 victories as against eight defeats. Hub Pernoll still remains the leading Oakland pitcher, with Christian and Parkin following in the order named.

The pitchers' records up to Sunday night are:

Willie Fitzsimmons, who played with Vernon last year and with Bakersfield this year, left last night for Spokane, where he expects to get a chance in the short field.

George Wheeler, manager of the Fresno club, is in Oakland trying to sign up some talent. He is after Johnny Healon who had a try out with the White Sox. He also wants a young and active second baseman. Wheeler was particularly anxious to sign up George Kramer, the Oakland Polytechnic star, but [illegible] school.

The All-Filipino baseball team which defeated Santa Rosa, Sunday, and then left last night for the east, offered Jakey Baumgarten a berth with the outfit as permanent umpire on the trip around the circle. They paid the Oakland arbiter a high compliment for his work Sunday. Jakey has been getting away with a lot of good games in the Sonoma Valley country.

Thursday We Have First Double-Header

The two games will be [illegible] contest will be started at 2 o'clock, so that both may be completed in ample time before sundown.

The double attraction will doubtless draw out a large attendance of fans from both sides of the bay. Manager Mitze of the Oaks is determined to win both games of the double-header and will save two of his best pitchers for the occasion.

ANNUAL GOLF TOURNEY OF DEL MONTE CLUB BEGINS JULY 3

The next event on the season's golf program is the annual tournament of the Del Monte Golf and Country club, which is scheduled for the Del Monte course from the 3d to the 6th of July. The Del Monte championship is the principal contest on the announcement, as usual, but several other tourneys will also hold the attention of the golfers.

In addition to the men's and women's championships, there will be handicap match play competitions for both men and women with trophies for the best score in qualifying rounds for the winner and runner-up in first flights, winners of defeated eights, additional flights and mixed foursomes event.

Jack Neville is the present holder of the Del Monte cup and is expected to be on hand in an effort to get his name on the silver shield at Del Monte once more. Neville has been playing excellent golf in the northern tournaments this month and there seems to be none among the local golf cracks who can take the measure of the skillful Claremonter. Neville played brilliantly in the recent Jewel tournament at Santa Cruz in all except the heavily handicapped [illegible] all he could do to win up north, and consequently is looked upon to annex the title again.

Newton, Armstrong, Whyte and Neville are the four players who appear as winners of the men's trophy in previous years, while Miss Alice Hager, Miss Margaret Morris and Miss Edith Chesebrough have each held the Del Monte championship for women. Miss Chese- [illegible]

Hawaiian Swimming Team Is Here Seeking Laurels

One of the chief features of the Pacific coast championship swimming tournament to be held in Sutro Baths on July 4 and 5 will be the half mile swim. The coast record for this distance, 12 minutes 18 seconds, held by Ludy Langer of Redondo Beach, was made last [illegible] at the P. A. A. meet held in the Olympic club, San Francisco. Lincoln Johnson, the one legged speed marvel of the San Francisco Y. M. C. A., pushed Langer all the way, finishing a scant length behind him in the best time ever made on the coast.

The meet on the Fourth will bring these old time rivals together again, with each of them at his best. Complications are introduced by the entries of the Hawaiian swimmers, whose ability is not known on this side of the water.

Over 100 entries have been received by Mr. Coffman of the S. F. Y. M. C. A., who is managing the meet. These entries comprise the pick of the Pacific coast and Hawaiian swimmers.

The Honolulu team, including Duke Kahanamoku, the world's champion, arrived in San Francisco today, on the steamer Wilhelmina. The New York Baltusrol Golf club is raising a purse with which it is hoped to induce Edward Ray, the British golf champion, and Harry Vardon, five times holder of the title, to appear in Short Hills links when they arrive in this country, for a match against Jerome D. The Encinal Yacht club has filed a formal protest with the city council against the granting of permission to the Bay Shore club to hold clay pigeon shoots off the Bay Shore club quarters at the south end of Ninth street. The Encinal Yacht club members represent that rowers of the club use the water close to the south side shore for canoeing and that shooting at clay pigeons will endanger the lives of the club rowers and others out in boats in the vicinity of the contemplated trap range.

Although many cities of this country have public school athletic associations or organizations whose sports usually occur annually, none can boast of the organization perfected by the New York public schools athletic leagues, whose annual exercises in Central park, included 10,000 lads, all in white shirts and dark trousers who went through in unison the hygienic and mimetic drill exemplifying the exercises in which 700,000 pupils of the schools there are drilled in on every school day.

IF NOT, WHY NOT?

Why do you envy the baseball star?
Is it because of the game he's played?
Is it because of the name he's made?
Yes? Well forget it, for such things fade.
Your lot is happier, far.

He bats his turn and he fields a while;
If he fans—a can; if he hits—a smile.
But he gets his price for all this, say you?
You are right, and it's big—sometimes, 'tis true,
But when years fly by and he's lost his grip
They paste good night on his mile-scarred grip
And he totters out in the sunset's glow
With his few thin dimes—and that's all bo.

What's that? He has a great name, you say?
Yesterday—yes; but not today.
The fame that's built on a lusty clout
Is woefully weak and is soon snuffed out.
The bard, the painter, the wise old sage
Who trusted their fame to the printed page
Less than to the souls they stirred to fire—
Theirs is the fame that you desire.

Baseball Problems and Their Answers

To the Sporting Editor: On a local diamond there is a bank in the outfield which makes ground rules necessary. When a ball is hit over the bank only two bases are allowed. There was a runner on first base in a recent game when the batter hit the ball over this bank. The runner from first scored, but was sent back to third by the umpire on account of the ground rules. Was the umpire right or should the runner from first be allowed to score?—W. E. B.

The umpire was right.

To the Sporting Editor: The batter hits a ball over second base and the centerfielder, in throwing the ball to the second baseman, overthrows the base and the ball rolls into the crowd that had gathered around the diamond. A spectator picks up the ball and throws it into the diamond. The pitcher gets the ball and gets on the slab and then throws the ball to third baseman, who tags the runner out before he reaches the base. Should the runner be called out or allowed to take third?—Ernest Few.

The runner is out.

To the Sporting Editor: Do ground rules govern the base runner as well as the batter?—Evan W. Lansing.

Yes.

To the Sporting Editor: With runners on first and third bases, the batter hits a fly to rightfield. The base runner on third stays on the base until the ball is caught and then runs home. The runner on first had started to second when the pitcher was winding up and did not return to the base when the ball was caught. The fielder threw the ball to the catcher to try to get the runner from third, but he beat the throw. The first baseman, retiring the runner on that base. As there was one out when the batter hit the fly and the runner from first was doubled, does the run that was scored by the runner from third count?—C. E. Meyer.

No.

HUGHEY SMITH BATS .400 AS SCOUT

Henry Berry thinks that Hughey Smith, ex-Angel catcher, is destined to bat about .450 as a scout.

Hughey is the Christopher Columbus of Clair Goodwin and Dutch Reuther, having discovered said persons on local college diamonds.

"Goodwin, on his showing to date, looks like one of the best players to break into the Coast League from the amateur ranks since the days of Hal Chase," said Berry. "Reuther has a lot of stuff, and if he proves to be a winner, which I feel confident that he will, Smith will have come near establishing a record as a scout his first year out."

Berry can be pardoned for waxing enthusiastic over the Goodwin party. Goodwin, in the three games which he has played, was up eleven times and cracked out five hits for a percentage of .455. That's Ty-Cobbing some for a mere youth without previous professional experience.

HAP'S NEW TWIRLER DUE TOMORROW

Hap Hogan says that his faith in the club is beginning to be justified. "It begins to look like we are started at last," said Hap. "It certainly has been a trying period for us, but I guess we will now pick up the lost ground.

"As long as the team is winning the line-up will not be disturbed, but we are on the lookout for new talent, and any weak point which develops will be plugged instantly.

"Kepler is now on his way to the Coast, and should arrive here Wednesday. If he delivers up to the standard of his past performances he should materially bolster the pitching staff. Just put the Tigers down as contenders from now until the final gong."

BARNEY JOY SHINES AT HONOLULU

You all remember Barney Joy.

Barney, like Johnny Williams of the Sacramento club, is a blown-in-the-bottle Kanaka.

Joy was with San Francisco in the dim and musty past, and performed in a manner that caused him to graduate into the big league. The main tent held no attractions for him, and he reverted to his native heath.

Barney is still some pitcher, it seems. According to reports from the mid-Pacific, Joy is displaying a lot of his old-time stuff with the Honolulu Stars.

If that be true there are a few Coast League clubs who could use him to advantage. However, the fact that Barney is still in the reserve list on one of the major league clubs might prove an insurmountable obstacle.

BERRY IS OUT AFTER THIRD CATCHER

It is probable that a third catcher will be added to the Angel staff. Two backstops are sufficient when all is well, but a couple of busted thumbs would necessitate the presence of a third man.

Realizing this, Berry seems to have been doing some quiet skirmishing in the past couple of weeks, and gives assurance that Los Angeles will never be up against it for lack of talent in the backstopping department—not for a minute.

MURPHY vs ANDERSON COFFROTH'S HOPE

Once again Jimmy Coffroth is among "those present," the San Francisco promoter returning yesterday from an outing spent at Jack Tait's ranch in the Santa Cruz mountains. Immediately upon the arrival of the "Sunny one," he began talking business. He expects to match "Harlem Tommy" Murphy and Bud Anderson for August. The winner of this he will try to match with the winner of the Ritchie-Rivers match in July. Jim has a great boost for the hospitality of Tait. Those present during Coffroth's sojourn at the Tait domicile were Arthur Fisk, Tony Griffin, Joe Watts, Jim Coffroth, Tommy Mulvey, Bill Mikulich, Otto Walfisch, George Salohm, Harry Mackenzie, Sam Berger, Kid Nelson and Charlie Arata.

Willie Robinson of San Francisco vs. Bubbles Robinson of Los Angeles at 130 pounds; 10 rounds.

Lee Johnson of Oakland vs. Johnnie O'Leary of Seattle at 126 pounds at 5 o'clock; 10 rounds. James J. Griffin, referee.

(By THE TIMEKEEPER.)

Forty rounds of boxing is the dish prepared for this evening by Promoter Jim Griffin of the Humboldt club at Dreamland Rink in San Francisco. The fun will begin promptly at 8:30 o'clock, giving local lovers of the mitt wielding game an opportunity to return to their dwellings at a reasonable hour. A ten-round bout with Johnny O'Leary of Seattle and Lee Johnson, the local colored boxer, as principals, will feature the evening's entertainment. Incidentally it will also narrow the featherweight championship of the Pacific Coast. Johnson and O'Leary have met on two previous occasions, the first resulting in a decision for the Seattle youngster, while in the second the local youngster succeeded in getting over enough to be awarded the decision on points. Both boys are rough mixers and should provide some real whirlwind amusement. They meet at 122 pounds. The betting is even money.

There are two other ten-round affairs. Walter Scott and Young Abe Attell will provide the fun in one, while Bubbles Robinson and Willie Robinson hook up in the other. Both bouts give promise of action. Ray Baughman of Petaluma and Charley Givens of Seattle will engage in a six-round set-to, and a four-round curtain raiser between Mickey Hogan and Kid Bertelsen will conclude the evening's entertainment.

The Scott-Attell bout will be refereed by Champion Willie Ritchie, while the other events will be handled by Griffin.

A surprise was slipped little Johnny Coulon, the bantamweight title holder, when he met Frankie Burns at Kenosha, Wis., last night, Burns holding the champion to a tight ten-round draw. The two boys boxed toe to toe during the greater part of the engagement, without either gaining any decided advantage. It looked rather dark for the champion in the fifth when Burns started after him like a young cyclone. Coulon's ring generalship saved him, however, and in the sixth he came back strong, keeping the bout on an even keel. The seventh was all Coulon. The eighth and ninth and tenth found both boys tired but willing and the draw decision was well received. The bout was fast throughout, with practically no stalling.

A conference is being held this afternoon between the principals of the Ritchie-Rivers bout for the purpose of choosing a referee for the coming contest. It is not likely that the arbiter for the July match will be picked today, it being something of a custom to have a number of "consultations," "conferences" or whatever you care to call them before finally deciding upon the third man in the ring. Incidentally this method is productive of several columns of free advertising in the newspapers. To the writer it looks as if Eddie Graney, Jim Griffin or Benny Selig will be the choice of the boxers, although, as usual, every-

AMATEUR BASEBALL

The Fruitvale Kreig & Haltons defeated Fort Baker, Sunday, 5 to 1, in the second clash of the season. Ramsdell's pitching for the winners was a bright feature of the struggle. The Kreigs have yet to lose a game, having played and won 11.

The International Correspondence School team won a fast 2 to 1 game, Sunday, from Company B, League of the Cross Cadets. Carroll of the winners fanned 16 men.

The Boyle & Lawlors defeated the Berkeley Moose in a one-sided game at the Eighteenth and Wood diamond by a score of 20 to 2. The game was featured by the hitting of the Boyle & Lawlor boys who drove the ball to all corners of the lot. O'Connor again featured with two homers and a triple. Sprinkle also did good work with the stick; Sharpe and McLaughlin also secured homers. Red Hobson played sensational ball for the Moose also secured a long triple. He will be seen in a Boyle & Lawlor uniform Sunday.

The Lion club of Dimond defeated the Allendale Juniors by a score of 5 to 3. Batteries—Sorrells and Jenkins; Shultz and Travy.

Tim Dorgan's fast little Imperials lost a game to the Crescent Athletic club of San Francisco by the score of 9 to 5. The Imperials were much smaller than the Crescents, but, nevertheless, put up a clever game. Moore pitched a good game for the Imperials but did not have the best support. White played a fine game in leftfield as did Cohen behind the plate and Jones at second base. White made several good catches, one of them a one-hand stab that would have been good for a three bagger and three runs.

Cohen's arm was in fine form and he killed off several base runners with fast pegs. Jones in the infield took seven good chances without a boot. The Crescents have a fine team and ought to beat a lot of teams around the bay counties. Among the victims of the Crescents are: West Oakland Merchants, S. J. S. Victors, Fruitvale Moose and others. Moore and McCourtney starred with the bat, each getting two hits, one of them a two bagger.

The Imperials lined up as follows: Jones 2b, White lf, McCourtney ss, Johnston 3b, Cohen c, Moore p, McDowell 1b, Asher cf, Maxey rf.

ALAMEDA, June 24. — It was a rather ragged exhibition of baseball which the teams of the Alameda league gave Sunday at Lincoln park. In the first game the Alamedas walked away easily from the Rattlers in a 10 to 4 contest.

Score.	R.	H.	E.
Alamedas	10	9	1
Rattlers	4	6	3

Batteries—Russell, P. Mackie and Maillott; Kihn, Carter and Cotello.

The Andersons, who are now playing the best ball of any team in the league, shut out the Kreig & Haltons. The losing team played a patched lineup, the vacation season causing several K. & H. players to be absent.

Score:	R.	H.	E.
Andersons	7	15	1
Kreig & Haltons	0	3	2

Batteries—Lloyd and Maguire; Moffett and Maillott.

The results of the games yesterday gives the following club standing:

Andersons	4	3	571
Kreig & Haltons	3	4	428
Rattlers	1	6	147

The Pleasanton team again showed its superiority over the visitors by defeating the Mission Clothiers of San Francisco to the tune of 6 to 5. The Pleasanton boys scored two in the ninth on three consecutive hits by Caitano, Diavila and Rose, the first three men to come to bat. The victory was due to heavy hitting while Silva for the victors held his opponents to a few scattered hits. The fielding of the winners was hardly up to their usual form. This was partly due to the crippled condition of the team.

Score:	R.	H.	E.
Pleasanton	6	11	6
Mission Clothiers	5	5	3

The East Oakland Maccabee team, No. 17, defeated the Albany Maccabees Sunday morning at Eighteenth and Wood streets by the score of 23 to 3. The same teams meet again next Sunday at Albany. The Oakland Maccabees include a number of old State leaguers and believe they have the material for a champion lodge team. The battery work last Sunday of the veteran Al Rogers and Johnson was a feature.

The hillside club made it seven straight by defeating the East Oakland Pirates by a score of 13 to 14. Score:

JULY 4 REFEREE TO BE CHOSEN TODAY

(Con. From Preceding Page)

body from the president down to the office boy will be suggested for the position.

Eddie Campi has been installed a 10 to 6 favorite over Charles Le Doux, the French bantamweight, for the bout at the Vernon arena tonight. The odds have been teetered to such a degree, because of the awkward manner in which Le Doux has worked in his training, and they expect him to be easy picking for Campi. Little Le Doux money was in sight up to noon today, according to press dispatches, but a decided loosening was apparent and the odds are expected to become more even. The boys box at 116 pounds and the winner is assured a chance at the title holder.

Both Willie Ritchie and Joe Rivers are confident of victory in their July 4 go. Naturally Rivers expects to do away with Ritchie in short order. According to the Mexican's way of thinking, Ritchie is just about the easiest thing that ever came across the pike. "If he will only stand up and fight," raved Joe, "I will put him out before the match is [illegible] sparring partners in a real business like manner and they are certainly earning their weekly stipends. STREET CHEERFUL; TRADING IS QUIET

Increased Operations Reflects Confident Attitude of Traders.

NEW YORK, June 24.—Sentiment was cheerful today on the Stock exchange, although trading grew quiet after the first hour's upward rush. The more confident attitude of traders was reflected in the increased operations for the long account. The optimistic tenor of foreign advices seemed to be the main influence in lifting the market.

London dispatches indicated that nervousness at the approach of settlement had disappeared and that a large professional short intedest was outstanding in the leading stocks. London bought 20,000 to 25,000 shares here chiefly Canadian Pacific, the Harrimans, Amalgamated and Steel.

Outside interest revived somewhat as prices climbed, but after the list had advanced materially buyers began to hesitate and there was a renewal of bear pressure in spots which caused a reaction of half point or more.

The market closed strong. Concerted buying in various parts of the list started prices up. [illegible] beyond yesterday's close had an immediate tonic effect all around. Stocks in which speculative interest is largely of day-to-day character showed the greatest strength.

When realizing stopped and buying orders appeared it became evident that there was not a great deal of stock available at the lower levels and prices began to mend. The list did not get up as high as in the morning, but gains of a point or more were quite general. Selling of the Virginia-Carolina Chemical stocks revived talk of unfavorable trade conditions.

Bonds were steady.

WIFE ACCUSED OF LEAVING CHILDREN

Lives of Offsprings Endangered by Fire, Declares Divorce Complainant.

W. T. S. Kirk has filed suit for divorce from Beatrice L. Kirk, and bases his charges on her alleged neglect of their two children, Norman Angus, aged 5, and Elmore, aged 3, this alleged neglect reaching a climax when both children were nearly burned to death in their home, where the mother had left them alone. Kirk states in his complaint that the mother frequently left her home and children for hours at a time and on one occasion the house caught on fire in some way, presumably through little Norman playing with matches, and but for the timely assistance of neighbors, who saw the blaze, both children might have perished.

Other allegations in the complaint are that Mrs. Kirk used abusive language toward her husband. He asks for the custody of both children.

Olga Alma Vilen has filed suit for divorce from Frank Oscar Vilen, charging intemperance. They were married in Michigan in 1899. There is community property, for which the plaintiff asks.

HUSBAND FLIRT, WIFE'S CHARGE

Extreme Cruelty is Divorce Accusation Against Peter F. Bradhoff.

Extreme cruelty caused by the open manner in which her husband flirted with other women, are the allegations on which Katherine M. Bradhoff, the wife of Peter F. Bradhoff, bases her suit for divorce which was filed late yesterday. Mrs. Bradhoff was Katherine Towle, the daughter of Building Inspector Towle, before her marriage to Bradhoff, who is secretary of the Builders' Exchange.

Mrs. Bradhoff alleges that her husband flirted with other women in her presence and in such a manner that it became a matter of comment among their friends. When she upbraided him, she says, he declared he did not love her, but loved some other woman. She further alleges that he made proposals of a questionable character to another woman. Mrs. Bradhoff is a sister of Charlotte Towle.

G. W. AND R. I. RAILWAYS SEEK REBATE EXEMPTION

ST. PAUL, June 24.—Attorneys of the Great Western and Rock Isand Railways appeared before the State Warehouse and Railway Commission late yesterday and asked that the ruling of the United States Supreme Court, handed down recently at Washington, should not apply to them. They declared that the rebates ordered by the Supreme Court, approximately $250,000 for the Great Western and $75,000 for the Rock Island, would be as unfair to them as to the Minneapolis and St. Louis Railway, which was exempted.

ARRESTED FOR MINOR CRIME; KILLS HIMSELF

SAVANNAH, Ga., June 24.—Rather than submit to arrest for leaving his ship without permission T. Eaton, a seamon of the United States ship Tacoma, killed himself in a public square this morning. When his captors surrounded him, the sailor drew a revolver.

"I'll kill myself before I'll return," he cried, pressing the weapon against his breast and fired. He died in a few minutes.

VESSELS COLLIDE IN HEAVY FOG

The Freighter Missourian Runs Into Steam Schooner Daisy Mitchell.

The heavy fog which hung over the bay last night was responsible for a head-on collision between the lumber carrier steam schooner Daisy Mitchell, Captain H. A. Smith of the S. E. Sade Lumber Company service, inward bound from Gray's Harbor, and the big American Hawaiian freighter Missourian, Captain Lyons outward bound for Honolulu via Puget Sound. The two vessels came together at 7:10 o'clock several hundred yards outside the Golden Gate. The carrier was crawling along slowly, the density of the mist making it impossible to go at ordinary speed for fear of accident. Suddenly the whistle of the Missourian boomed out of the white mist. Captain Smith ordered his engines astern and the craft had hardly begun to back when the big prow of the steel freighter loomed out of the darkness and crashed into the prow of the light wooden vessel.

Captain Lyons [illegible] command to a halt but not before he had stove in the stem of the Mitchell. After ascertaining that the Mitchell was in no danger, the Missourian proceeded on its way to Puget Sound, while the Mitchell steamed into port and tied up at the local yards of the Panama Lumber Company.

"It was an unavoidable accident," said Captain Smith this morning. "We were steaming along under slow speed through an almost impregnable fog blowing our whistle at [illegible] dently the Missourian's whistle drowned the noise of ours and her skipper was not given an opportunity to bring his craft to full stop until too late."

The Mitchell was 80 hours in making the run from the north, heavy fogs being experienced almost continuously during the entire passage, necessitating slow speed.

WILL 'BURN DOWN' OLD CITY HALL

On Friday eevning at 9 o'colck, the old city hall will be "burnt down" by fifty members of the Down Town Improvement Club. To do this saucepans containing red fire will be required, and for the benefit of the moving picture machines, an improvised war dance will take place.

The whole performance will be in the nature of a symbolic destruction of the old city hall together with the old-fashioned ideas, and business policies that had until a short time ago, dominated Oakland. The arson will be committed by the appointed members, who will assemble at every window of the old buildings on the Fourteenth and San Pablo sides and at a signal from a bugle will light red fire in the saucepans, giving the effect of the building being destroyed by flames.

The members will meet at the Hotel Crellin, at 8 o'clock on Friday evening, and with the saucepans as musical instruments, march to the old structure. MBefore the burining, there will be a short talk by a prominent local man and selections rendered by a quartette. It is through the courtesy of Messrs Fortin and Cole, the purchasers of the structure, that the building will be "burned."

OAKLAND HARBOR'S BUDGET OF NEWS

Pleasure seekers are beginning to take the usual summer interest in launch excursions about the bay and a successful local season is being looked forward to. A number of complaints have been made because of lack of facilities for handling passengers from the wharf to the small boats, and plans are under way to make the necessary arrangements.

Captain John Stanly had a party of local pleasure seekers out on his launch, Ceres, Sunday. Those in the party included Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Kiel, Mrs. H. C. Brokaw of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. P. Franz of Canada; Mr. and Mrs. John Mott, Mr. and Mrs Cal Marble, Mr. and Mrs. McKinnell, Mr. and Mrs. M. Esse, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Parisli and Mr. and Mrs. C. Phillipps.

The San Jacinto is at the E. K. Wood yards discharging 550,000 foot lumber cargo. The Fifield and Bee sailed from the inner harbor. The A. M. Simpson was the only other inner harbor arrival.

WOMAN SWALLOWS POISON AND DIES

Alone in her home last night, Mrs. Marcelle Plastre, wife of J. E. Plastre, 920 Aileen street, swallowed the contents of a vial of strychnia. Plastre, who is a clerk for a drug company in San Francisco, returned about 10:30 and found the door of his home locked and the place in darkness. Failing to obtain a response to his knocking, he forced an entrance to the place with the assistance of R. Riley, who lives at 916 Aileen street. They found Mrs. Plastre struggling in agony.

Dr. C. H. Walworth was summoned from Fifty-fourth and Genoa streets, but was too late to check the effects of the deadly poison. The woman died within less than an hour.

Beside the body was found a farewell note in which she said that despondency over illness was the cause of her act. Mrs. Plastre had been ill for some time and had been afflicted with spells of mental aberration, according to her relatives. It is thought that she took her life while suffering from mental derangement.

Mrs. Plastre was 34 years of age and a native of France. The inquest will be held tomorrow at 1.30 and the funeral the day following.

The police were not notified of the death, but learned of it from a flagman at Fifty-fifth and Genoa streets, and gained information as to the details from Riley.

HAYWARD WANTS SUNDAY CLOSING OF SALOONS

Stricter Regulations Requested by Residents, Will Be Considered.

The Good Government League Starts Active Campaign Against Traffic.

HAYWARD, June 24. — Sunday closing of saloons in Hayward and stricter regulation of the liquor trade is asked in a petition presented to the Board of Trustees and signed by 300 of the residents.

This petition was laid before the Board of Trustees at the last meeting by Rev. Hamilton Lee, president of the Good [illegible] by a number of Hayward people, including Rev. Irving E. Thompson, Rev. C. B. Rogers, Rev. Father Viladomat and others. After a long discussion, which was taken part in by Mayor Charles Heyer and several of the trustees, the board decided to lay the petition over until August, when action will be taken in the matter. As only 225 signatures are required for the calling of a special election, [illegible] the question will be put to a vote.

The following is the petition, which has been circulated by the Good Government League of Hayward, and the names of those who have signed the petition in favor of Sunday closing:

To the Honorable Board of Trustees of the Town of Hayward:

The undersigned citizens of the said town of Hayward believing that the time has fully arrived for stricter regulation of the retail and wholesale liquor business in said town, most respectfully petition your honorable body to amend the present town ordinance relating to the sale of intoxicating wines, liquors and beverages or any of them at retail and wholesale, in the following manner: First, close all saloons all day on Sundays in the town of Hayward, whether for the sale of liquor or other intoxicating beverages for wholesale or retail. Second, open glass fronts to be maintained in said saloons at all times, so as to permit a view of the bar and inside of barroom from sidewalk. Third, no so-called "family" or so-called "ladies" entrances to be permitted. Fourth, no private boxes, no private rooms for drinking purposes to be allowed. Fifth, all bonds to be renewed yearly. Sixth, all applications for liquor licenses to be in writing and laid over for one month before action of the board.
